More Poem Portraits James J. Metcalfe, 1951 Pictures of the Heart Joshua S. Mostow, 1996-01-01 The Hyakunin Isshu or One Hundred Poets One Poem Each collection is a sequence of one hundred Japanese poems in the tanka form selected by the famous poet and scholar Fujiwara no Teika 1162 1241 and arranged in part to represent the history of Japanese poetry from the seventh century down to Teika's own day The anthology is without doubt the most popular and widely known collection of poetry in Japan a distinction it has maintained for hundreds of years In this study Joshua Mostow challenges the idea of a final or authoritative reading of the Hyakunin Isshu and presents a refreshing persuasive case for a reception history of this seminal work In addition to providing a new translation of this classic text and biographical information on each poet Mostow examines issues relating to text and image that are central to the Japanese arts from the Heian into the early modern period By using Edo period woodblock illustrations as pictorializations of the poems as pictures of the heart or meaning of the poems text and image are pieced together in a holistic approach that will stand as a model for further research in the interrelationship between Japanese visual and verbal art Portraits and Biographical Sketches of Twenty American Authors Horace Elisha Scudder, 1887 Poem portraits James J. Metcalf, 1948 The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey, 2012-06-29 In The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey recovers the portrait as a poetic genre from the 1860s through the 1920s Combining literary and art history she examines the ways Dante Gabriel Rossetti Algernon Swinburne and J M Whistler transformed the genre of portraiture in both painting and poetry She then shows how their new ways of looking at and thinking about the portrait subject migrated across the Atlantic to influence Ezra Pound T S Eliot William Carlos Williams Amy Lowell E E Cummings and other poets These poets creatively exposed the Victorian portrait to new influences ranging from Manet's realism to modern dance Futurism and American avant garde art They also condensed expanded and combined the genre with other literary modes including epitaph pastoral and Bildungsroman Dickey challenges the tendency to view Modernism as a break with the past and as a transition from aural to visual orientation She argues that the Victorian poets and painters inspired the new generation of Modernists to test their vision of Aestheticism against their perception of modernity and the relationship between image and text In bridging historical periods national boundaries and disciplinary distinctions Dickey makes a case for the continuity of this genre over the Victorian Modernist divide and from Britain to the United States in a time of rapid change in the arts Biennial Report of the Historical Department of Iowa Iowa.
