

Haunted Houses

Poem That Rhyme

Atop the hill, it stands so high,
Its windows gleam, under the sky.
Like eyes that watch, both night and day,
It sees all that comes its way.

Doors that creak, and floors that moan,
Inside the house, you're never alone.
Its wooden beams and stones so old,
Hold many secrets, stories untold.

If walls could talk, oh, what they'd say,
Of whispered nights and sunny days.
Yet silent stands the house with eyes,
Guarding its secrets, under the skies.
