Poet Tree Vol I: Prose, Lyrics & Thoughts Steve Petersen, 2017-04-20 The writings you find in this book were created and collected as part of the POET TREE concept originally mastered in Palm Springs at the Palapas Artist Center starting in April 1994 The idea of an Artist Garden was to have a spiritual and creative venue where artistic energies could be expressed and shared with the public at local national and global events Poetry music writing dance theater and creative art needed a public stage A more perfect place at the foot of the San Jacinto Mountains upon sacred ground could not be found The setting evolved into a place where visitors felt moved to leave notes attached to the tree branches leaves and yellow flowers growing on the restored Mexican Palo Verde tree The collection of poems notes songs and tales from the hearts of those visiting the Poet Tree became so numerous I asked one of the artists to paint a mailbox and I placed it under the tree Poets and would be poets from all walks of life of all ages creeds colors and faiths started leaving notes and poems in the Poet Tree Mailbox I share these prose thoughts and lyrics with you now Please scroll to top and purchase a copy of this book now My Poet

J.

Anderson, 2013-05 When I see and hear the ubiquitous hype and media coverage for celebrities receiving acclaim after facing their ordeals with breast cancer I hear words like bravery stamina devastating disease how well they are handling the diagnosis and how heroically they are getting on with their lives Most of these same celebrities are alive and well after their diagnosis because of the work done by women like my late wife Lois A Anderson Yet most people have never heard of her If you want to read a book about real bravery real stamina and the power to make real changes that matter to the breast cancer story you need to take the time to read this book Lois came from a poor family coming from conditions most of us would never ascend from and made her mark upon the world I do not want to be forgotten she told me after being diagnosed with stage III breast cancer at the age of thirty nine She lived eighteen years after that diagnosis and in many ways changed the world with her knowledge support and political advocacy Many throw money at research in an effort to move breast cancer out of the ranks of an incurable cancer into one where most will survive it Lois didn't have money She didn't have the media to tell of her many battles What she did have was a spirit of hope which she used to battle breast cancer on all fronts This is the story of a remarkable woman who in spite of the odds not only survived but also turned an ordeal that would have devastated most of us into a shining example of what one person can do even when they are facing death Sometimes you get the chance to change things she often told me In her short lifetime even with cancer raging through her body she took the chance and did that very thing She not only fought her own personal battle with breast cancer but also fought the war against it Lois pursued such an astonishing life from the moment she came into the world overcoming many obstacles in her quest to rise above the ordinary many conquered before breast cancer entered her life I felt her story had to be told She lived her short life coming from very humble beginnings rising from all of it making changes she hoped would better everyone when it ended on January 17 2011 At the time of her death she was considered a great breast cancer advocate known at the national level She was diagnosed with stage III breast cancer at the age of thirty nine six days before her fortieth birthday in 1992 Signs that could have cautioned her remained muted by an unsuspecting bruise she sustained from an injury several months before her fortieth birthday In time she was treated for the initial breast cancer and remained cancer free for almost ten years until cancer returned in 2001 Then when the odds seemed stacked against her she fought the disease as a stage IV breast cancer survivor metastatic breast cancer from the time of that dire discovery until she died in January 2011 She lived eighteen years from the time she was diagnosed against all prognostications allowing her only five years of survival Over the last six months of her life I began writing a story where I escaped the realities of losing my wife to something I had no control over In a way it transitioned into a metaphoric fable a parallel story of her life Between the lines I allowed myself the chance to create an alternate world where the real trials Lois and I experienced on our last road together eventually made some sense to me in our unpredictable world After she died I began the long process of chronicling her amazing biography and believed I could finish the fictional one Both stories represent a process of coming to terms with her death and a promise I made to not let her be forgotten I began writing her real life story in late February 2011 After I started I found stories and journals Lois had written about herself tucked away in boxes and old folders throughout the house Some o Poet Tree Poet Tree Tree (author),2013 The Poet's Tree Margo,2004-09-01 The Poet Tree Clara Melehes,1960 Poet Tree Volume Forr Beneath the Roots Poet Tree,2015-11-13 The fourth book continues the legacy of the Poet Tree book series with the poems of Volume Forr Beneath the Roots Age of the Acorn written by the Poet Tree pen name This starts a new chapter for

Becket,2020 Poet Tree Poet Tree,2017-12-07 Welcome to Poet Tree Utilizing a new writing method of recording thoughts on paper developed back in the year 1991 this book reveals a tale of my past experiences All the pain sorrow love and hope are intertwined in verses made up of a myriad of metaphors in my way of thinking You ll certainly be moved and feel the emotional depths of this journey of a child who struggled with sexuality and spirituality How does one live life after facing so much trauma and addiction The challenge first begins with your understanding of the root system beneath the Poet Tree You will face a suffering tree whose growth has been scarred for all of eternity by going back in time to face many demons and begin to understand why these undying memories will last forever Poet Tree Volume Two Poet Tree,2012-01-20 Poet Tree Volume Two Under the Silver Moon explores the growing relationship with a man and God This is a collection of poems by Poet Tree the selection within these pages tells the story of a young man s life as a high school graduate who is exploring his sexuality and Christianity during 1992 when he was only a 19 years old As time passes his reliance on alcohol and drugs is just the beginning of his longest journey to date Captured within a few pages you will sense that Forrest changing ever so slowly but at least he s growing and not dying

The Poet Tree D. N. Read,M. R. Cain,2013-03-14 This is a book of eyes once closed being opened I wrote these poems in the hope that one day those who read them would find answers to questions I once asked myself I wrote them for people to read when they need to know they are not alone in their thoughts experiences or feelings Some of these poems are flights of fancy some are taken from personal experience some are specific to certain emotions written when the spoken word was too painful or simply too hard to just let out they are all taken from the world around me These words vary in their emotional content I drew some from the dark places where our subconscious slowly works through the things life has thrown our way others are taken from sunny days in the country or by the sea when our hearts are overflowing with joy as many are taken from the places in between these two states of mind For the people who love the world of fantasy I have taken inspiration from my dreams wrapping the threads of our sleeping minds around the waking world there are even some poems that bring the world of art science mythology and fantasy together Whoever you are and wherever you re from I guarantee there is something in here for you and hopefully when you ve read these poems you ll have something for those around you The Poet Tree Keani,2007 Communication with nature conduct of life the sacred spirit of life
