documents and government records some of which have not been previously accessible to readers accompanied by newly produced analytical diagrams and drawings This history intersects with key moments during the late colonial period in Hong Kong presenting a particular perspective related to the social context in its dealings with cultural architecture and spatial practices This book is a timely reflection of cultural and spatial production calling for alternative projections about Hong Kong s future urban and cultural development It will be of interest to researchers and students of architectural design urban planning and cultural policy studies in Hong Kong and the East Asia region
