

They Asked Me for Verses

By Jose Rizal: an understanding

They Asked Me for Verses by Jose Rizal was written when he was a member of Circulo Hispano Filipino. They Ask Me for Verses (Me Piden Versos) reflected how sad it was for him to be able to direct emotions through his poem but to be suffocated and muted by the dominant and oppressive Spaniards.

The poem, They asked Me for Verses (Me Piden Versos) is all about Dr. Jose Rizal's longing for his homeland, the Philippines. This poem was read at Circulo Hispano-Filipino on New Year's Eve in Madrid and was published in 1882. He wrote this poem upon the request of the members of this society. In this sad poem, Rizal poured out the cry of his agonizing heart. He also remembered his childhood days and the poem shows how much he missed the Philippines and how hard it is for him to leave his motherland.

The members of the society asked him to compose a poem, in this poem he conveyed his emotional feelings through his poem, even though he no longer found it easy to write poetry, tried to write and finish what he had begun. During the time he wrote the poem, he couldn't find any inspiration to compose, he felt very sad that was an outcast or isolated from all. He feels lonely as if his soul is being crushed or ripped in half, that when he writes something, it seems that it will turn out to be a joke of deep sadness. In this deep sadness, he cannot feel or express himself well when writing and talking about his memories that he cherishes and longs for. The poem also speaks of the place of origin of the poet who is Rizal, and the place where he originated and came from is our nation, the Philippines.

When Jose Rizal was depressed, he wrote this poem, not only because he is homesick for his homeland, but also love-sickness for Leonor Rivera, his long-lost love. She was his sweetheart for 11 years and was perhaps the most influential in preventing him from falling in love with other women while on the trip. Sadly, Leonor's mother disapproved of her daughter's relationship with Rizal, who was a suspected 'filibustero' at the time. She kept all of Rizal's letters hidden from Leonor, who, thinking Rizal had forgotten about her, agreed to marry her mother's choice of husband, Henry Kipping, an Englishman.
