Representations Intersections Of Culture And Power:

(Mis)representations Fernando Galván, José Santiago Fernández Vázquez, 2003 The 19 papers consider how the notions of representation and misrepresentation are related to the uses and misuses of power in the English speaking world The topics include the Amritsar Massacre and beginning of the end of the Raj woman at war propaganda versus autobiographical writing Chicano po

De-Centring Cultural Studies Patricia Bastida-Rodríguez, José Igor Prieto-Arranz, 2014-09-18 The academic resistance that cultural studies has encountered remains especially visible in Eastern and Southern European countries One such example is Spain where cultural studies is seen at best as an emergent research field Hence the interest of this volume conceived in Spain by an all Spanish editorial team and written by a diverse range of authors who prove that in spite of all difficulties cultural studies continues to bloom even in Southern and Eastern Europe The different chapters offer interdisciplinary insights into a wide selection of cultural materials whose relevance goes well beyond purely aesthetic issues Altogether the volume 1 provides interesting theoretical reflections on the subtle yet arbitrary borders between popular and canonical culture 2 explores how the popular culture of yesteryear has influenced and inspired later canonical cultural materials and 3 studies how the reception of and representation in popular culture can be accounted for from the crucially relevant perspectives of gender and age This collection of essays studies and explores the connections between a wide range of materials including relevant examples of classic and contemporary literature Arthuriana pop music and videos political and mainstream film newspaper advertising television and the phenomenon of the trans media star

Queer Representation in Literature and Popular Culture Dhishna Pannikot, Tanupriya, 2025-08-18 Queer Representation in Literature and Culture offers a timely and critical exploration of how queerness is depicted negotiated and resisted across diverse literary and cultural texts Bringing together interdisciplinary perspectives the volume examines queer identities desires and politics through the lenses of decoloniality and intersectionality With contributions that span literature cinema digital media and popular culture this book foregrounds voices and narratives that challenge heteronormative and patriarchal frameworks Accessible yet scholarly it is an essential resource for those interested in the intersections of gender sexuality culture and power in contemporary discourse

Intersections of Law and Culture at the International Criminal Court Julie Fraser, Brianne McGonigle Leyh, 2020-10-30 This pioneering book explores the intersections of law and culture at the International Criminal Court ICC offering insights into how notions of culture affect the Court's legal foundations functioning and legitimacy both in theory and in practice

Literary Representations of Japan: At the Intersection of David Mitchell and Haruki Murakami's Worlds Eugenia Prasol, 2023-09-12 This book will focus on analyzing the different aspects of Japan's representation in the novels of Haruki Murakami and David Mitchell It is proven that Murakami creates and recreates Japan without implementing any orientalist features or exotic imagery In the works of both authors the intent to depict a new world of Japan stripped of traditional stereotypical traits becomes clear The difference between Murakami and Mitchell's representation of Japan lies in the difference between Japan as seen by the Japanese and Japan as seen by modern Westerners but both are correct images of Japan. It is a recreation of the global image of Japan. In that sense the texts of Murakami and Mitchell are complementary representations of Japan through East-West cultural dialogue. Studying the representations of Japan and Japanese national character helps to understand the role of Murakami and Mitchell in the formation of a new image of Japan, the de-stereotyping of anachronistic ideas about Japanese national exclusivity, enriching by doing so the world literature with new visions of the country and its culture. The purpose of the comparative analysis of English and Japanese literary works performed in this work is to reveal both deep analogies and differences in the representation of the image of Japan, actualizing the national specificity of the texts. This research advances the understanding of how both general and specific components of literary representations of Japan and Japaneseness are manifested in the East-West cultural dialogue.

At the Intersection Thomas Rosteck, 1999-01-01. This provocative volume is based on the premise that cultural studies and rhetorical studies address specific and parallel questions about culture, critical practice and interpretation, and that opening up a dialogue between them can enhance both and provide a more complete understanding of society. Noted scholars across a variety of disciplines examine overlaps and contradictions between these approaches as well as critical and pedagogical issues that surface with their linkage.

British Representations of the Middle East in the Exhibition Space, 1850-1932 Holly O'Farrell, 2023-11-10. This volume analyses British exhibitions of Middle Eastern, particularly ancient Egyptian and Persian artefacts, during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, examining how these exhibitions defined British self-image in response to the Middle Eastern other. This study is an original interpretation of the exhibition space along intersectional constructionist lines, revealing how forces such as gender, race, morality, and space come together to provide an argument for British supremacy. The position of museums as instruments of representation of display made them important points of contact between the British national imperialist scheme and the public. Displays in the British Museum, Victoria and Albert Museum, and Burlington House provide a focus for analysis. Through the employment of a constructionist lens, the research outlines a complex relationship between British society and the Middle Eastern artefacts presented in museums during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. This allows a dialogue to emerge which has consequences for both societies, which is achieved through intersections of gender, race, and morality in space. This book will be of value to students and scholars alike interested in museology, cultural studies, history, and art history.

At the Intersection of Indigenous and Traditional Knowledge and Technology Design Nicola Bidwell, Heike Winschiers-Theophilus, 2015. There is intensified interest in designing information and communication technologies (ICTs) that respond to ways of doing, knowing, and saying that differ from those that dominate in producing ICTs, and in particular to traditional or indigenous knowledges. ICT endeavours for indigenous or traditional knowledges (ITK) vary. Some aim to extend ITK digitally, and others use ICTs to improve the economic and/or political situation of marginalised groups This book presents themes that arise in designing to respond to ITK in different cultural social physical and historical contexts

Ethics and Ethnicity in the Literature of the United States María Frías, Begoña Simal González, 2006 La tica se puede definir como la relación con el otro la respuesta obligatoria a un otro que precede cualquier norma específica de conducta moral una relación tica primordial que es la base de cualquier código tico o moral particular Cuando ese otro se particulariza como el otro tico como se ve afectada en su misma articulación esta concepción de la tica Tiene la etnicidad como concepto un cariz tico Hay una tica de la etnicidad Por el contrario la tica es tica La matización tica de lo tico estrecha de algún modo el ámbito de actuación de lo tico En una cultura tal como la de los Estados Unidos fundada sobre una tica individualista de rango paradójicamente universalizante que se ve cuestionada constantemente por las propias constricciones impuestas a la singularidad tica de sus muchos otros tales preguntas parecen especialmente pertinentes Los ensayos de este volumen demuestran implícitamente que estas preguntas no tienen respuestas definitivas puesto que se trata de términos cuyo dominio conceptual se refiere a lo singular y lo diferente a las singularidades obstinadamente no generalizables del otro La literatura diversa de los Estados Unidos nos proporciona el terreno textual ideal para esta conjunción de lo tico y lo tico Como lo demuestra el panorama transhistórico de estos ensayos esta contestación es intrínseca a la propia literatura dada su explicitación de la otredad y a la vez su participación en la domesticación de esa otredad La literatura de los Estados Unidos con sus históricamente determinadas demandas de pluralidad discursiva y sus generalizaciones totalizantes y trascendentales se convierte en un corpus donde sobresale la articulación de este doble movimiento La conjunción de lo tico con lo tico evita la cerrazón de la apertura tica ya que un enfoque tico cuestiona la tentación de la tica hacia la abstracción mientras que el impulso tico nos mantiene alerta frente a la constitución universalizante y estereotipada de las identidades ticas
