FRONTIERS

'I used to stand at the frontiers of my senses
like a customs official paid to look suspicious.'
Those confessions. In the pale summer dark
I meet a tall fir still in his prime though his branches are not in perfect order:
he's still on duty, but perhaps past caring having watched too many people like me plundering into the forest with delicate retinae.

I pause and look suspiciously at him.
I don't confuse myself and the lenient fir.
('You live too much on your emotions'—
I know the truth of those analyses.)
No objection. The forest swallows me up.
