Development and Economic Development Hassan M Somo,2018-03-07 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2016 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 90 course Economics language English abstract The study focus on identifying the relationship between Human capital and economic development for Educational Institutions in Mogadishu using descriptive analysis with view of increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of private universities in Mogadishu More specifically this study aims to find out the effect of human capital development and economic development The target or accessible population of the study was 60 of educated employee or instructors in educational institutions in Mogadishu an which a sample of 49 respondents was drawn using stratified random sampling and proportionate was used to determine sample size for each of the three educational institutions such as plasma university modern university and university of Somalia To achieve the objectives of the study a survey design was employed The study relied principally on primary data which was collected using questionnaires containing close ended questions for ease of analysis Data was analyzed using descriptive with the aid of Statistical Package for Social Sciences Based on the finding in objective one which indicates the total average mean the second objectives which indicates the total average mean Based on the findings in objective third and fourth or specific objectives of the study indicates the total average mean so that the all objectives indicate a good sign or positive sign means the overall Skill building and training of the educational institutions are very good While the overall mean of economic development was scored a as shown in the table of chapter four indicates so that the study indicates that human capital development have a significant and strong relationship towards the economic development The researcher recommends further investigation should be conducted to collect data from other educational institutions such to see whether human capital development are increasing and effecting the economics in the country The study also recommends that the Expand human capital investment on institutional capacity by strengthening the infrastructure of educational institutions to produce quality manpower to eradicate the level of illiterate and effect the capital and development ,1986      Research in human capital and development ,      Integrating Human Capital with Human Development John F. Tomer, 2016-04-05 For the most part human capital theory emphasizes human cognitive development and the acquisition of knowledge and skills that enable enhanced productivity and earnings In light of recent research findings particularly concerning neurodevelopment and early childhood development it is becoming apparent that this standard version of human capital theory has a far too limited conception of human capabilities and how they are created Integrating Human Capital with Human Development considers recently accumulated knowledge related to the human brain s functioning and development to better understand the relationship between human capital and human development in successful economies It shifts the focus of human capital theory to give full consideration to intangible non cognitive aspects of learning This exciting new volume is an important addition to the study of human capital and behavioral economics more broadly

Human Capital Development and Innovation John R. Baldwin, Joanne Johnson, 2013 This study examines the characteristics of small and medium sized firms that perform training It uses data taken from a recent Statistics Canada survey that permit firms training decisions to be analyzed within the broader context of their many activities and strategies The study finds strong evidence for the hypothesis that human capital development facilitated by training is complementary to innovation and technological change Training incidence is found to be closely related to the importance that a firm gives to research and development the use of new technologies and numerous other strategies that are related to innovation Training is also greater where a firm emphasizes quality and a comprehensive human resource strategy The results point to the inherent complementarity of technology and human resources policy
