Asbestos The Hazardous Fiber Melvin A. Benarde, 2018-05-04 With the passage of the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act AHERA Public Law 99 519 it was clear that great quantities of asbestos would be disturbed and would require proper management and disposal If these were poorly done many people would be placed at risk unnecessarily Into such an environment a book dealing with the many diverse facets of asbestos abatement written by people with substantial experience seemed reasonable and appropriate but even more so necessary

Homosexuality in the German Armed Forces Klaus Storkmann, 2024-12-30 Until 1979 homosexual men were systematically exempt from military service in the Bundeswehr Although homosexuality alone was no longer a cause for being unfit for service the principle applied to homosexual soldiers was compulsory military service yes career no In most cases same sex orientation made it impossible to become an officer And it was classified as a security risk It was not until 2000 that the Federal Ministry of Defense changed its course Klaus Storkmann is the first to examine the Bundeswehr's handling of homosexual soldiers on the basis of interviews court records and papers of the Federal Ministry of Defense A comparison with other armed forces and the public service in the Federal Republic of Germany places the Bundeswehr actions in a larger context The study proves that homosexuality has always been an issue in the military and continues to be so in many places it is based on retrospective views on former German armed forces in particular the National People's Army of the GDR and includes side glances at armies of other states
