Mapping Jewish Identities:

Mapping Jewish Identities Laurence J. Silberstein, 2000-07 Is Jewish identity flourishing or in decline Community leaders and scholarly researchers continually seek to determine the attitudes beliefs and activities that best measure Jewish identity At issue according to these studies is the very survival of the Jewish community itself But such studies rarely ask what actually is being examined when we attempt to assess Jewish identity or any identity Most tend to assume that identity is a preexisting relatively fixed frame of reference reflecting shared cultural and historical experiences Drawing on recent work in such fields as cultural studies poststructuralist theory postmodern philosophy and feminist theory Mapping Jewish Identities challenges this premise Contesting conventional approaches to Jewish identity contributors argue that Jewish identity should be conceptualized as an ongoing dynamic process of becoming in response to changing cultural and social conditions rather than as a stable defining body of traits Contributors including Daniel Boyarin Laura Levitt Adi Ophir and Gordon Bearn examine such topics as American Jews desires to connect with a lost immigrant past through photography the complicated function of the Holocaust in the identity formation of contemporary Jews the impact of the struggle with the Palestinians on Israeli group identity construction and the ways in which repressed voices such as those of women Mizrahim and Israeli Arabs have changed our ways of thinking about Jewish and Israeli identity

Jessica Mozerky, Sahra Gibbon, 2014 New Jewish Identities Zvi Y. Gitelman, Barry Alexander Kosmin, András Kovács, 2003-07-30 A unique collection of essays that deal with the intriguing and complex problems connected to the question of Jewish identity in the contemporary world Based on a conference held in Budapest Hungary in July 2001 it analyzes and compares how Jews conceive of their Jewishness Do they see it in mostly religious cultural or ethnic terms What are the policy implications of these views and how have they been evolving What do they portend for the future of world Jewry The authors present new data from west European and post Communist countries Hungary Moldova Poland Russia Ukraine and re interpret data from other European countries as well as from Israel and the United States making this a truly comprehensive comparative and contemporary work Mapping Jewish Culture in Europe Today Rebecca Schischa, 2002

Nashim, 2005 The Israeli Memory Struggle Jakob Feldt, 2007 The Israeli Memory Struggle analyzes changes in Israeli perspectives of its history and identity through the 1990s This particular decade of Israeli history was characterized by significant cultural clashes and vigorous debates over Jewish Israeli history identity literature and not the least the peace process between Israel and the Palestinians The book provides thought provoking perspectives on issues related to the so called post Zionism debates and the globalization of Israeli society through the 1990s It critically investigates the new Israeli historians prominent authors of the 1990s diasporic philosophy and Israel s 50th anniversary in 1998 in the shape of the TV documentary Tekumah Finally the book discusses new tendencies in Israeli culture that are suggestive to Jewish Israeli identity in the age of globalization Mapping Israel's Identity Joshua Adam Martin, 2021 Since the publication of Nostra

Aetate in 1965 Jews and Christians have engaged in dialogue more systematically and broadly than ever before Drawing on Romans 11 29 Nostra Aetate affirmed the ongoing covenant status of the Jewish People and rejected supersessionism the notion that the Church has replaced the Jewish People as Israel However Nostra Aetate did little to define the relationship of the Jewish People and the Christian Church which emerged as a major scholarly task Within scholarly discourse of recent decades the precise identity of Israel remains unclear The identity of Israel lies at the heart of the Jewish Christian theological relationship without further clarity dialogue will continue to face obstacles on central matters of concern To contribute to such clarity this dissertation asks Who is Israel the Jewish People or the Christian Church and proceeds on the basis of a four fold typology of logically possible answers 1 Neither is Israel 2 the Church alone is Israel 3 the Jewish People alone is Israel 4 both together are Israel Four consecutive chapters analyze the four types of answers by examining key representative scholars identifying the theological components constituting each s answer More significantly the deeper presuppositions underlying these theological convictions are identified and described in their relationship to one another exposing the core unifying commitments of each group A final chapter compares the constellations of deep presuppositions discerning what is distinctive for each type of answer thereby opening new pathways toward dialogue and constructive Jewish and Christian theologies of mutuality The thesis is threefold first that the typology regarding views of Israel s identity defined and applied herein is a useful tool for understanding contemporary views on the question second that there are identifiable presuppositions that inform the types and can be analyzed in terms of unifying constellations of deep presuppositions upon which each answer is built and third that these constellations can be compared in order to see what is shared across types and what is the core distinctive set of presuppositions for each type American Jewish History ,2004

Antisemitism Susan Sarah Cohen,1987 Israel, the Diaspora, and Jewish Identity Danny Ben-Moshe,Zohar Segev,2007 This title investigates the significance contribution and role played by the State of Israel ideologically and practically and explores the extent and way Israel features in diaspora identity through a range of issues American Freedom and Jewish Identity ,1954 Report of the Oxford Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies Oxford Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies,2002 Shofar ,1998 Contesting Fundamentalisms Carol Schick,Ailsa M. Watkinson,JoAnn M. Jaffe,2004 A multidimensional understanding of the nature of fundamentalism is presented in this exploration of fundamentalism s manifestations in economics nationalism ethnic relations gender politics and religious practice While religious fundamentalism has been a particularly potent cultural force in contemporary times other spheres have been affected by this revival of extreme positions How fundamentalism is used by the powerful to retain privileged positions and how it can be attractive to subordinate groups as a strategy for resisting oppression are among the issues discussed in this incisive examination The Order of Evils Adi Ophir,2005-10-08 A new moral theory from an Israeli philosopher and activist emphasizing the existential and political nature of evil Reference Points Marcy

Brink-Danan,2005 Marginal Groups and Mainstream American Culture Yolanda Estes,2000 They are often portrayed as outsiders ethnic minorities the poor the disabled and so many others all living on the margins of mainstream society Countless previous studies have focused on their pain and powerlessness but that has done little more than sustain our preconceptions of marginalized groups Most accounts of marginalization approach the subject from a distance and tend to overemphasize the victimization of outsiders Taking a more intimate approach this book reveals the personal moral and social implications of marginalization by drawing upon the actual experiences of such individuals Multidisciplinary and multicultural Identity on the Margin addresses marginalization at a variety of social levels and within many different social phenomena going beyond familiar cases dealing with race ethnicity and gender to examine such outsiders as renegade children conservative Christians and the physically and mentally disabled And because women are especially subject to the effects of marginalization feminist concerns and the marginalization of sexual practices provide a common denominator for many of the essays From problems posed by complimentary racism to the status of gays in Tony Blair s England from the struggle of Native Americans to preserve their identities to the singular problems of single mothers Identity on the Margin takes in a broad spectrum of cases to provide theoretical analysis and ethical criticism of the mechanisms of identity formation at the edges of society In all of the cases the authors demonstrate the need for theory that initiates social change by considering the ethical implications of marginalization and criticizing its harmful effects Bringing together accounts of marginalization from many different disciplines and perspectives this collection addresses a broad audience in the humanities and social sciences It offers a basis for enhancing our understanding of this process and for working toward meaningful social change Lost on the Map of the World Phillipa Kafka,2001 In this collection of nine scholarly and personal writings by and about Jewish American women from the post pogrom and Holocaust eras to the waves of feminism from 1950 to the present Kafka emerita women s studies Kean U Union NJ frames the theme of a quest for home both as a Jew and as a woman c Book News Inc Second Style Acquisition Sarah Bunin Benor,2004 Civilization of the Ancient Mediterranean Michael Grant,Rachel Kitzinger,1988 Essays covering the full range of topics on the people customs government religion and arts of the ancient world
