Modern Marketing Communications Frank Jefkins, 2012-12-06 Marketing communications is a subject which has become popular in both marketing and public relations circles but sometimes with different parameters There are those who prefer to confine marketing communications to promotional activities which is mostly an academic point of view and there are those who see the subject in broader terms embracing every form of communication used in marketing which is how the subject is practised in the business world While the author has long experience as a teacher and examiner he also continues to be a professional practitioner Consequently the book aims to serve those concerned with both the academic and the professional in interpretations of marketing communications It is of course hoped that those who adopt the academic approach to the subject will eventually acknowledge that there is more to marketing communications than advertising sales promotion selling marketing research and public relations It is also necessary to realise that public relations embraces much more than the publicity in the 4Ps promotion box Without wishing to be contentious this broad approach is proposed so that communications of all kinds throughout the marketing strategy can have maximum effect Very little has been published on this subject and the book is therefore a pioneer attempt to establish the practical parameters of modern marketing communications There are so many broad and narrow interpretations of marketing communications but it is hoped that this book will be useful to teachers students and practitioners of the subject

Introduction to Strategic Public Relations Janis Teruggi Page, Lawrence J. Parnell, 2017-11-30 Winner of the 2019 Textbook Academic Authors Association's The Most Promising New Textbook Award How can public relations play a more active role in the betterment of society Introduction to Strategic Public Relations Digital Global and Socially Responsible Communication prepares you for success in today's fast changing PR environment Recognizing that developments in technology business and culture require a fresh approach Janis T Page and Lawrence Parnell have written a practical introductory text that aligns these shifts with the body of knowledge from which the discipline of public relations was built Because the practice of public relations is rooted in credibility the authors believe that you must become ethical and socially responsible communicators more concerned with building trust and respect with diverse communities than with creating throwaway content The authors balance this approach with a focus on communication theory history process and practice and on understanding how these apply to strategic public relations planning as well as on learning how to create a believable and persuasive message Key Features Chapter opening Scenarios capture your attention by discussing current PR challenges such as the Wells Fargo cross selling VW emissions cover up and P G s Like a Girl campaign and thus frame the chapter content and encourage active reading At the end of the chapter you explore various aspects of socially responsible communication to solve the PR challenge Socially Responsible Case Studies in each chapter illustrate the key responsibilities of a modern public relations professional such as media relations crisis communications employee communications applied communications research and corporate and government specific communications Each case features problem solving questions to encourage critical thinking Social Responsibility in Action boxes feature short specific social responsibility cases such as Universals NoFoodWasted Nespresso in South Sudan and Merck's collaboration with AIDS activists to highlight best practices and effective tactics showing the link between sound public relations strategy and meaningful social responsibility programs Insight boxes spark classroom discussion on particularly important or unique topics in each chapter Personality Profile boxes will inspire you with stories from PR veterans and rising stars such as the U S CEO of Burson Marsteller the Chief Communication Officer of the United Nations Foundation and the Executive VP at HavasPR

The Timberman, 1925 Rate Research, 1914 Advertising & Selling, 1927 The Public Relations of Everything Robert E. Brown, 2014-10-30 The public relations of everything takes the radical position that public relations is a profoundly different creature than a generation of its scholars and teachers have portrayed it. Today it is clearly no longer limited if it ever has been to the management of communication in and between organizations. Rather it has become an activity engaged in by everyone and for the most basic human reasons as an act of self creation self expression and self protection. The book challenges both popular dismissals and ill informed repudiations of public relations as well as academic and classroom misconceptions. In the age of digitization and social media everyone with a smart phone Twitter and Facebook accounts and the will and skill to use them is in the media. The PR of everything the ubiquitousness of public relations takes a perspective that is less concerned with ideas of communication and information than with experience and drama a way of looking at public relations inside out upside down and from a micro rather than a macro level. Based on a combination of the research of PR practice and critical thinking analysis of theory and founded in the author s extensive corporate experience this book will be invaluable reading for scholars and practitioners alike in Public Relations Communications and Social Media.
