British Concepts of Heroic "Gallantry" and the Sixties Transition Matthew J. Lord, 2021-05-03 This book examines the relationship between concepts of heroic gallantry as projected by the British honours system and the sociocultural political military and international transitions of the supposed Sixties cultural revolution In so doing it considers how a conservative hierarchical and state orientated concept both evolved and endured during a period of immense change in which traditional assumptions of deference to elites were increasingly challenged Covering the period often defined as The Long Sixties from 1955 79 this study concentrates on four distinct transitions undergone by both state and non state gallantry awards including developments within the welfare state class and gender discrimination counterinsurgency and decolonisation It ultimately sheds fresh light upon the importance of postwar decades to the continued evolution of concepts of gallantry and heroism in British culture using a range of underexplored government and media archives It will be of interest to scholars students and general researchers of heroism in modern Britain the Sixties revolution postwar military history and both the social and political evolution of British honours decorations and medals

Performance Auditing and the Modernisation of Government Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Public Management Service, 1996 This publication considers the relationship between performance auditing and public sector modernisation and the extent to which performance auditing could or should improve the performance of public sector organisations

E-government, 2001 Government Research Series Bowdoin College. Bureau for Research in Municipal Government, 1918 House of Lords - Persuasion and Power in the Modern World - HL 150 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Select Committee on Soft Power and the UK's Influence, 2014-03-28 While strong Armed Forces remain the bedrock in safeguarding national interests new kinds of power projection are now required both to make the use of force hard power more effective and in some instances to replace it with the deployment of what has been labelled soft power Soft power involves getting what a country wants by influencing other countries to want the same thing through attraction persuasion and co option The information and digital revolution has transformed international relations and foreign policy meaning that the UK must win over new and wider audiences to its point of view The UK must change the way it interacts with other nations and communities and is well equipped to do so Soft power methods of exercising international influence must now be combined with older approaches in order to secure and promote the UK s interests and purposes To ensure that the exercise of soft power takes its place at the core of government policy making the Committee calls for the creation of a new strategic unit at the heart of Government Its purpose would be to assist the Prime Minister in ensuring all Departments understand the importance of soft power and of upholding the UK s reputation and in swiftly counteracting any potentially damaging policies or messages While investing in soft power takes time to produce results the Committee makes a number of recommendations including that BBC World Service s budget is not reduced any further in real terms and that the British Council is properly resourced to encourage the UK s creative industries
