Bergelson's Strange New World Harriet Murav,2019-02-01 David Bergelson 1884 1952 emerged as a major literary figure who wrote in Yiddish before WWI He was one of the founders of the Kiev Kultur Lige and his work was at the center of the Yiddish speaking world of the time He was well known for creating characters who often felt the painful after effects of the past and the clumsiness of bodies stumbling through the actions of daily life as their familiar worlds crumbled around them In this contemporary assessment of Bergelson and his fiction Harriet Murav focuses on untimeliness anachronism and warped temporality as an emotional sensory existential and historical background to Bergelson's work and world Murav grapples with the great modern theorists of time and memory especially Henri Bergson Sigmund Freud and Walter Benjamin to present Bergelson as an integral part of the philosophical and artistic experiments political and technological changes and cultural context of Russian and Yiddish modernism that marked his age As a comparative and interdisciplinary study of Yiddish literature and Jewish culture this work adds a new ethnic dimension to understandings of the turbulent birth of modernism

Jews in Russian Literature After the October Revolution Efraim Sicher, 2006-04-20 This work is an innovative and controversial study of how four famous Jews writing in Russian in the early Soviet period attempted to resolve the conflict between their cultural identity and their place in Revolutionary Russia Babel Mandelstam Pasternak and Ehrenburg struggled in very different ways to form creative selves out of the contradictions of origins outlook and social or ideological pressures Efraim Sicher also explores the broader context of the literature and art of the Jewish avant garde in the years immediately preceding and following the Russian Revolution By comparing literary texts and the visual arts the author reveals unexpected correspondences in the response to political and cultural change This study contributes to our knowledge of an important aspect of modern Russian writing and will be of interest to both Jewish scholars and those concerned with Slavonic studies
