Education and the Postmodern Condition Michael Peters,1997-07-23 This collection of essays brings together a number of contributions on Lyotard s work made by philosophers educationalists and sociologists around the special focus of education Their intent is to examine Lyotard s notion of the postmodern condition and its relevance to education

Postmodernism and Education Richard Edwards,Robin Usher,2002-11-01 In this book the authors explore and clarify the nature of postmodernism and provide a detailed introduction to key writers in the field such as Lacan

Derrida Foucault Lyotard They examine the impact of this thinking upon contemporary theory and practice of education concentrating particularly upon how postmodernist ideas challenge existing concepts structures and hierarchies Digital Learning in Motion David Kergel,2020-11-05 Digital Learning in Motion provides a theoretical analysis of learning and related learning media in society The book explores how changing media affects learning environments which changes the learning itself showing that learning is always in motion This book expounds upon the concept of learning reconstructing how learning unfolds and analyzing the discourse around pedagogy and Bildung in the age of new digital media It further discusses in detail the threefold relationship between learning and motion considering how learning is based on motion generated by new experiences and changes with the environment and through its own mediatization The book presents a normative model that outlines how learning can be structured on the basis of society s values and self understanding discourses in the digital age This book will be of great interest for academics postgraduate students and researchers in the fields of digital learning and inclusion education research educational theory communication and cultural studies

Postmodern Theory, Computer Technology, and Education Kenneth Einar Hay,1991 Visual Literacy David Mike Moore,Francis M. Dwyer,1994 (Post) Modern Science (education) John A. Weaver,Peter Michael Appelbaum,Marla Morris,2001 These original essays offer new perspectives for science educators curriculum theorists and cultural critics on science education French post structural thought and the science debates Included in this book are chapters on the work of Bruno Latour Michel Serres and Jean Baudrillard plus chapters on postmodern approaches to science education and critiques of modern scientific assumptions in curriculum development Thinking Again Nigel Blake,1998-04-30 The postmodern condition in which instrumentalism finally usurps all other considerations has produced a kind of intellectual paralysis in the world of education The authors of this book show how such postmodernist thinkers as Derrida Foucault and Lyotard illuminate puzzling aspects of education arguing that educational theory is currently at an impasse They argue that we need these new and disturbing ideas in order to think again fruitfully and creatively about education Philosophical Studies in Education ,1996 Some vols consist of proceedings of the annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Philosophy of Education Society Postmodernism, Feminism, and Cultural Politics Henry A. Giroux,1991-01-22 This book introduces central assumptions that govern postmodern and feminist theory offering educators a language to create new ways of conceiving pedagogy and its relationship to social cultural and intellectual life It challenges some of the major categories and practices that have dominated educational theory and practice in the United States and in other countries since the beginning of the twentieth century Rejecting the apolitical nature of some postmodern discourses and the separatism characteristic of some versions of cultural feminism the contributors take a political stand rooted in concern with cultural and social justice In so doing these essays represent a linguistic shift regarding how we think about ethics foundationalism difference and culture The selections present a concern with developing a language that is critical of master narratives racism sexism and those

technologies of power in schools that subjugate infantilize and oppress students The authors also develop a language of possibility that focuses on analyzing how power can be linked productively to knowledge how teachers can construct classroom social relations based on notions of equity and justice how critical pedagogy can contribute to an identity politics that is grounded in democratic relations and how teachers can develop analyses that enable students to become self reflective actors as they transform themselves and the conditions of their social existence Rethinking College Education George Allan,1997 Not a method of turning your degree back in and having your loans forgiven but an argument that by becoming vocational schools measured by reduced cost and efficient production colleges and universities are neglecting their essential purpose The reason for college education says Allan is to provide an environment within which students can absorb the moral practices that determine how they can acquire and evaluate knowledge best conduct their lives and become responsible adults He maintains that such learning requires imagination dialogue conversation and cultured intercourse
