Postwar German Literature A Critical Introduction:

Postwar German Literature Peter Demetz,1970 Postwar German Literature Peter Demetz,1970 Family Secrets and the Contemporary German Novel Elizabeth Snyder Hook,2001 Central to the discussions of each novel are questions of guilt cultural identity and atonement and of the relocation of these ultimately unresolvable issues from the larger national and political arena to the realm of intimate relationships between parents and children BOOK JACKET Germany and the United States, a "special Relationship?" Hans Wilhelm Gatzke,1980 A discerning statement about Germany and other nations this book reevaluates for the general reader and the historian the impact of rapid industrialization the origins of the world wars the question of war guilt the decade of Weimar democracy and the rise and fall of Hitler Gatzke looks anew at the economic miracle in West Germany and the consequences of making prosperity the cornerstone of a new republic Aspects of Post-war German and Japanese Drama (1945-1970) Hiroko Harada,2000 Against the background of post war literary developments in Germany and Japan this study compares several representative dramas These playwrights attempt to come to terms with military defeat betrayal by leaders wartime atrocities holocaust blindness passivity guilt collective and individual responsibility JEGP, Journal of English and Germanic Philology Gustaf E. Karsten,1972 Holocaust Drama Gene A. Plunka,2009-04-02 The Holocaust the systematic attempted destruction of European Jewry and other threats to the Third Reich from 1933 to 1945 has been portrayed in fiction film memoirs and poetry Gene Plunka s study will add to this chronicle with an examination of the theatre of the Holocaust Including thorough critical analyses of more than thirty plays this book explores the seminal twentieth century Holocaust dramas from the United States Europe and Israel Biographical information about the playwrights production histories of the plays and pertinent historical information are provided placing the plays in their historical and cultural contexts Murder in Our Midst Omer Bartov,1996 He shows how the way we understand ourselves reflects the ambivalent effects of the Holocaust on our perceptions of war and violence history and memory progress and barbarism Research in Education ,1971 Resources in Education ,1971-07 The Best Books for Academic Libraries ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro,2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene s The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry s Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen s Death in Rome and oka Sh hei s Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study

but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths
