Modernity And Religion:

Religions of Modernity Stef Aupers, Dick Houtman, 2010-07-07 Religions of Modernity challenges the social scientific orthodoxy that once unleashed the modern forces of individualism science and technology inevitably erode the sacred and evoke the profane The book s chapters some by established scholars others by junior researchers document instead in rich empirical detail how modernity relocates the sacred to the deeper layers of the self and the domain of digital technology Rather than destroying the sacred tout court then the cultural logic of modernization spawns its own religious meanings unacknowledged spiritualities and magical enchantments The classical theoretical accounts of modernity by Max Weber Emile Durkheim and others it is argued in the introductory chapter already hinted that there s a future for such religions of modernity Contributors Stef Aupers Kelly Besecke Kirsten Marie Bovbjerg Siobhan Chandler Olav Hammer Dick Houtman Murray Lee Carly Machado Karen P rna Adam Possamai Linda Woodhead and Dorien Zandbergen Meaning and Modernity Richard Madsen, 2001-12-04 This interesting volume of essays on contemporary religion and its ambivalent relationship to modernity not only serves as a testimony to the intellectual influence of Robert Bellah it establishes a new school of comparative religious and social thought This Bellahian school at the intersection of sociological theological and contemporary philosophical thinking has roots in Durkheim and Weber borrows insights from Marx Foucault and Bourdieu and finds its clearest voice in the writings of Bellah himself The essays by some of Bellah s colleagues and former students that have been gathered in this volume address some of the most sagacious of these Bellahian themes the religious dimension of contemporary civil societies the relationship between religious and capitalist values the cultural critique of modernity and the moral visions that hold a promise of civic renewal Mark Juergensmeyer author of Terror in the Mind of God The Global Rise of Religious Violence California 2000 This highly readable collection of original thought provoking essays by leading scholars provides fresh insights into the issues that Robert Bellah has addressed so fruitfully in his long career Readers will learn much about such issues as how Calvinism contributed to political revolution why democracies require an enlarged sense of political community how the religious foundations of Japan and the United States differ and what it means to be a Christian and an American Benton Johnson coauthor of Vanishing Boundaries The Religion of Protestant Baby Boomers 1994 and author of Functionalism in Modern Sociology Understanding Talcott Parsons 1975

Modernity, Religion, and the War on Terror Richard Dien Winfield, 2007-01-01 States that the war on terror cannot be truly understood without investigating the legitimacy of modernity the challenge that religion presents to modernization and the post colonial predicament from which Islamist reaction arises This book illuminates the war on terror in light of these issues Religion, Modernity and Postmodernity Paul Heelas, 1998-07-07 Religion Modernity and Postmodernity is the first book to engage the study of religion with contemporary theorizing about culture It addresses important issues such as whether there are postmodern forms of religion whether theories of religion framed in terms of modernity can be recast to suit new or emerging circumstances and how the study of religion can be better integrated with recent developments in the study of culture

Modernity, Religion, and the War on Terror Richard Dien Winfield, 2016-04-15 The war on terror cannot be truly understood without investigating the legitimacy of modernity the challenge that religion presents to modernization the inescapable conflicts attending the emergence and expansion of modernity and the post colonial predicament from which Islamist reaction arises Richard Dien Winfield illuminates the war on terror in light of these issues presenting an anti foundationalist justification of the rationality and freedom of modernity while assessing how religion can stand in opposition to modernity and why Islam has been a privileged vehicle of anti modern religious revolt Winfield shows that the privatization that religion must undergo to be compatible with modern freedom involves no capitulation to relativism but rather is a theological imperative on which the truth of religion depends Exposing the limits of any purely secular modernization of Islam Winfield shows how Islam can draw upon its core tradition to repudiate the oppression of Islamist reaction and become at home in the modern world

Modernity and Religion William Nicholls, 1988-02-08 It would be possible to argue writes William Nicholls that the pivotal subject of debate among theologians for the past two hundred years has been the relationship between modernity and the Christian tradition What is modernity a philosophical outlook or a set of ideas What is modernization a social process Is modernity the same as secularity as many theologians and sociologists in the West believe Is the impact of modernity weakening religious traditions Are the responses of non Western religious traditions to modernity similar to Western ones or are they distinctive indigenous adaptations to the same world wide development These are the kinds of concerns the interdisciplinary group of scholars addresses in this volume Contributors include Moshe Amon Utopias and Counter Utopias Alan Davies The Rise o Racism in the Nineteenth Century Symptom of Modernity Robert Ellwood Jr Modern Religion as Folk Religion Irving Hexham Modernity or Reaction in South Africa The Case of Afrikaner Religion Shotaro Iida Japanese New Religions Shelia McDonough modernity in Islamic Persepctive William Nicholls Immanent Transcendence Spirituality in a Scientific and Critical Age K Dad Prithipaul Modernity and Religious Studies Tom Sinclair Faulkner Caution Moralists at Work Huston Smith Can Modernity Accommodate Transcendence and John Wilson Modernity and Religion A Problem of Perspective

Religion and the Discourse on Modernity Paul-François Tremlett, 2008-01-01 Following Habermas claim that the discourse on modernity is characterised by a critique of reason that privileges aesthetic experience free from constraints of time and space and by a narrative of increasing rationality an important point of departure for re framing debates about theory and method in the study of religions is made available In Religion and the Discourse on Modernity Paul Tremlett argues that the aesthetic critique of modernity is constitutive of Marxist and post modern thought and also of aspects of the phenomenology of religion and its critique of profane existence He argues further that the Enlightenment promise of progressive rationality is constitutive of liberal and Marxist visions of modernity and the phenomenology of religion with its dream of global religious dialogue This provides an opening for re reading the likes of Otto Eliade Marx Nietzsche Freud Foucault de Certeau Derrida and Bourdieu and for a new vision of the study of religions

Modernism in Religion James Macbride Sterrett,1922 Religion and Modernity Detlef Pollack,Gergely Rosta,2017-11-28 This is not a book that provides a new integrated theory of religious change in modern societies but rather one that develops theoretical elements that contribute to the understanding of some contemporary religious developments Most of the approaches in sociology of religion are prone to emphasise either processes of religious decline or of religious upswing For example secularization theory usually includes a couple of relevant factors such as functional differentiation economic affluence or social equality in order to account for religious change However the result of such a theory s empirical analyses seems to be certain in advance namely that the social relevance of religion is decreasing In contrast the religious market model devised by sociologists of religion in the US is inclined to detect everywhere processes of religious upsurge Religion and Modernity An International Comparison avoids a purely theoretically based perspective on religious changes For this reason Detlef Pollack and Gergely Rosta do not begin with theoretical propositions but with questions The authors raise the question of how the social significance of religion in its various facets has changed in modern societies and explain what factors and conditions have contributed to these changes

Werblowsky,2016-10-06 First delivered in 1974 as one of the Jordan Lectures in Comparative Religion this book considers and compares traditional or pre modern and post traditional or post modern religions It assesses the processes as well as the images of change in various cultures principally Christianity Judaism Islam Hinduism and Buddhism and examines how these religions handle the dialects of rejection appropriation and integration

Religion, Education, and Post-modernity Andrew Wright,2004 This book the first to explore religious education and post modernity in depth sets out to provide a much needed examination of the problems and possibilities post modernity raises for religious education At once a general introduction to this topic and a distinctive contribution to the debate in its own right Religion Education and Post modernity explores and illuminates the problems and possibilities opened up for religious education by postmodern thought and culture The book describes the emergence of post modernity considers the impact of post modernity on religion addresses its impact on the philosophy of religion and considers the nature of religious education in the post modern world Andrew Wright argues that although post modernity has much to offer the religious educator there are also many pitfalls and dangers to be avoided Steering clear of the extreme of post modern hyper realism he constructs a religious pedagogy sensitive to post modern concerns for alterity difference and the voice of the Other whilst insisting on the importance of reasons in cultivating religious literacy

Powers of Distinction Nancy Levene,2024-05-31 In this major new work philosopher of religion Nancy Levene examines the elemental character of religion and modernity Deep in their operating systems she argues are dualisms of opposition and identity that cannot be reconciled with the forms of life they ostensibly support These dualisms are dead ends but they conceal a richer position another kind of dualism constitutive of mutual relation This dualism is difficult to distinguish and its concept of relation difficult to commit to It risks contention and even violence But it is also the indispensable support for modernity's most innovative ideals democracy criticism and interpretation In readings from Abraham to the present Levene recovers this richer dualism in its difference from the alternatives other dualisms nondualism multiplication From Abraham we get the biblical call to give up tribal belonging for a promised land of covenantal relation Yet modernity inclusive of this call is also the principle that critiques the promise when it divides self from other us from them Drawing on a long tradition of thinkers and scholars even as she breaks new ground Levene offers here nothing less than a new way of understanding modernity as an ethical claim about our world a philosophy of the powers of distinction to include rather than to divide about charisma consciousness and spirituality These ideas focus on new forms of shamanism that point the way to experiences of empowerment beyond the structures of disenchantment
