Molly, by Golly! Dianne Ochiltree, 2020-09-22 Here is the story of Molly Williams an African American cook for New York City's Fire Company 11 who is considered to be the first known female firefighter in U S history New York City's Fire Company Number 11 is in trouble A deadly snowstorm is blowing and many of the volunteers are sick in bed When the fire alarm sounds who will answer the call Who will save the neighborhood Molly Williams the company's cook for one Clapping a weathered leather helmet on her head strapping spatterdashes over her woolen leggings and pulling on heavy work gloves it's Molly by golly to the rescue Young readers will enjoy plucky Molly Williams's legendary adventure as they learn how fires were fought in the early 1800s Molly's Fire Janet Lee Carey, 2000 Publisher Description The Photographer as

Autobiographer Arnaud Schmitt, 2022-09-10 This book explores hybrid memoirs combining text and images authored by photographers It contextualizes this sub category of life writing from a historical perspective within the overall context of life writing before taking a structural and cognitive approach to the text image relationship While autobiographers use photographs primarily for their illustrative or referential function photographers have a much more complex interaction with pictures in their autobiographical accounts This book explores how the visual aspect of a memoir may drastically alter the reader's response to the work but also how in other cases the visual parts seem disconnected from the text or underused

The Party at Jack's Thomas Wolfe, 2013-06-01 In the summer of 1937 Thomas Wolfe was in the North Carolina mountains revising a piece about a party and subsequent fire at the Park Avenue penthouse apartment of the fictional Esther and Frederick Jack He wrote to his agent Elizabeth Nowell I think it is now a single thing as much a single thing as anything I've ever written Abridged and edited versions of the story were published twice as a novella in Scribner's Monthly May 1939 and as part of You Can't Go Home Again 1940 Now Suzanne Stutman and John Idol have worked from manuscript sources at Harvard University to reconstruct The Party at Jack's as outlined by Wolfe before his death Here in its untruncated state Wolfe's novella affords a significant glimpse of a Depression era New York inhabited by Wall Street wheelers and dealers and the theatrical and artistic elite Wolfe describes the Jacks and their social circle with lavish attention to mannerisms and to clothing furnishings and other trappings of wealth and privilege The sharply drawn contrast between the decadence of the party goers and the struggles of the working classes in the streets below reveals Wolfe's gifts as both a writer and a sharp social critic Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman
