Pin Up A Modest History:

The Pin-up Mark Gabor, 1972 This illustrated history of pin ups ranges from their origin up to the early 1980s and includes special spreads from Mayfair Penthouse and the Pirelli calendars

Why We Fought Robert B. Westbrook, 2012-01-11 Why We Fought is a timely and provocative analysis that examines why Americans really chose to sacrifice and commit themselves to World War II Unlike other depictions of the patriotic greatest generation Westbrook argues that strictly speaking Americans in World War II were not instructed to fight work or die for their country above all they were moved by private obligations Finding political theory in places such as pin ups of Betty Grable he contends that more often than not Americans were urged to wage war as fathers mothers husbands wives lovers sons daughters and consumers not as citizens The thinness of their own citizenship contrasted sharply with the thicker political culture of the Japanese which was regarded with condescending contempt and even occasionally wistful respect Why We Fought is a profound and skillful assessment of America s complex political beliefs and the peculiarities of its patriotism While examining the history of American beliefs about war and citizenship Westbrook casts a larger light on what it means to be an American to be patriotic and to willingly go to war

Against the claims of the increasing sexualization of culture one truism is constantly rehearsed that women have little taste for pornography One for the Girls offers a new basis for understanding women's pleasures in sexually explicit materials focusing on the production and consumption of For Women magazine This thought provoking book argues that theories of harm and women's subordination have deflected attention away from the lived experiences and practices of pornography By focusing on an individual publication this book illuminates the ways in which pornography is a social product and subject to a range of institutional practices which influence its styles and presentations The investigation is complemented by a study of For Women readers offering a multi dimensional understanding of their relationships with this soft core magazine P 4 of cover The New Yorker, 1973 Glossary of Art, Architecture and Design Since 1945 John Albert Walker, 1992 Time Britton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1972 Psychology Today, 1972 The New York Times Book Review, 1973 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1977 A Modest History Pin-up M.
