Nam Sense:

Nam Sense Arthur Wiknik, 2005-07-19 A candid memoir of being sent to Vietnam at age nineteen witnessing the carnage of Hamburger Hill and returning to an America in turmoil Arthur Wiknik was a teenager from New England when he was drafted into the US Army in 1968 shipping out to Vietnam early the following year Shortly after his arrival on the far side of the world he was assigned to Camp Evans near the northern village of Phong Dien only thirty miles from Laos and North Vietnam On his first jungle patrol his squad killed a female Viet Cong who turned out to have been the local prostitute It was the first dead person he had ever seen Wiknik's account of life and death in Vietnam includes everything from heavy combat to faking insanity to get some R tricked unwitting US suppliers into providing his platoon with hard to get food defied a superior and was punished with a dangerous mission and struggled with himself and his fellow soldiers as the antiwar movement began to affect them Written with honesty and sharp wit by a soldier who was featured on a recent History Channel documentary about Vietnam Nam Sense spares nothing and no one in its attempt to convey what really transpired for the combat soldier during this unpopular war It is not about glory mental breakdowns flashbacks or self pity The GIs Wiknik lived and fought with during his yearlong tour were not drug addicts or war criminals or gung ho killers They were there to do their duty as they were trained support their comrades and get home alive Recipient of an Honorable Mention from the Military Writers Society of America

Armed with Abundance Meredith H. Lair, 2011-11-28 Popular representations of the Vietnam War tend to emphasize violence deprivation and trauma By contrast in Armed with Abundance Meredith Lair focuses on the noncombat experiences of U S soldiers in Vietnam redrawing the landscape of the war so that swimming pools ice cream visits from celebrities and other comforts share the frame with combat To address a tenuous morale situation military authorities Lair reveals wielded abundance to insulate soldiers and by extension the American public from boredom and deprivation making the project of war perhaps easier and certainly more palatable The result was dozens of overbuilt bases in South Vietnam that grew more elaborate as the war dragged on Relying on memoirs military documents and G I newspapers Lair finds that consumption and satiety rather than privation and sacrifice defined most soldiers Vietnam deployments Abundance quarantined the U S occupation force from the impoverished people it ostensibly had come to liberate undermining efforts to win Vietnamese hearts and minds and burdening veterans with disappointment that their wartime service did not measure up to public expectations With an epilogue that finds a similar paradigm at work in Iraq Armed with Abundance offers a unique and provocative perspective on modern American warfare

Disorientation Karl Ashoka Britto, 2004-04-01 This book explores literary representations of cultural hybridity spanning nearly half a century a period marked by major shifts in Franco Vietnamese relations How can identity be thought and represented outside of the oppositional categories that divide cultures histories languages and races Can the intercultural subject be understood as more than a site of cultural contestation as anything other than a confrontation between incompatible binary opposites This book offers compelling responses to these questions through a series of close readings of francophone novels written by Vietnamese authors during and just after the colonial period While many contemporary studies of cultural hybridity tend to privilege the postmodern deconstructive play of postcolonial identities Disorientation seeks to uncover what is often obscured in such celebratory analyses the rigid and potentially traumatic conditions under which colonized subjects experienced the tensions and contradictions of intercultural identity The close readings that form the core of the book are inflected by cultural and historical considerations and informed by a range of primary documents that includes training manuals for colonial administrators works of imperialist propaganda tourist guidebooks and travel writing and textbooks from Franco Vietnamese schools These contextualized analyses recast the problem of interculturality in an Asian francophone context expanding the historical and cultural fields within which questions of identity and difference are currently discussed and offering a striking perspective from which to question postcolonial theories of hybridity
