Sin Pride Self Acceptance:

Sin, Pride & Self-Acceptance Terry D. Cooper,2009-09-20 What is at the root of the problem of humanity Is it pride or lack of self esteem Do we love ourselves too much or too little The debate about the human condition has often been framed this way in both theological and psychological circles Convictions about preaching teaching marriage and child rearing as well as politics social welfare business management and the helping professions more often than not fall on one side or the other of this divide With theological and psychological insight Terry D Cooper provides trenchant analysis of this centuries long debate and leads us beyond the usual impasse Humanistic psychology has often regarded traditional Christianity as its archrival in assessing the human condition Cooper demonstrates how the Christian doctrine of a sinful and fallen humanity sheds light on the human condition which exhibits both pride and self denigration Bringing theological insights ranging from Augustine and John Calvin to Reinhold Niebuhr together with the psychological theories of Freud Jung Carl Rogers Gerald May and Karen Horney Cooper guides readers through the maze of competing claims to a resolution which affirms Christian conviction while critically engaging modern psychological theory A model of the proper integration of Christian theology and the discipline of psychology Sin Pride Self Acceptance will be of special help to students and practitioners of psychology pastoral counseling and clinical psychology

Sin and Grace TONY LANE,2020-11-19 Tony Lane surveys a wide range of doctrines relating to our experience of God s gracious salvation He begins with our need as sinful and fallen people moves on to consider what is involved in becoming a Christian majoring on justification being put right with God and concludes with sanctification living the Christian life As well as expounding various aspects of these doctrines Lane introduces their historical roots in classical expositions Lane warns that these doctrines are in danger of being lost by significant sectors of evangelicalism and he explains them clearly He encourages readers to hold firmly to an evangelical soteriology having a greater understanding of it and a stronger conviction of its truth with experience of its application to Christian discipleship

Ancient Sins . . . Modern Addictions R. Scott Sullender,2013-07-05 There is a virtual epidemic of addiction in the United States both traditional addictions to drugs and alcohol but also newer addictions like sex gambling rage work and food eating Some authorities have labeled addictions the number one mental health problem in America We are spending millions of dollars annually trying to prevent understand and treat this epidemic and yet by any measure of success we are losing this war In this cultural context Dr Sullender invites us to look again at the spiritually based scheme of the Seven Deadly Sins which originated at the dawn of Western civilization He suggests that what our spiritual forebears meant by deadly is best captured in the modern concept of addiction Based on this thesis this book explores what is addictive about the sins of pride envy anger greed gluttony sloth and lust and suggests that these sins are all obsessive and as such become the mental component in the addictive cycle Each chapter concludes by offering some spiritual resources practices and insights that can help us win the battle against addiction which is ultimately won or lost on a mental or spiritual plane A Theory
