Communal Creativity in the Making of the 'Beowulf' Manuscript Simon C. Thomson,2018-04-17 In Communal Creativity in the Making of the Beowulf Manuscript Simon Thomson analyses details of scribal activity to tell a story about the project that preserved Beowulf as one of a collective if error strewn endeavour and arguing for a date in Cnut s reign He presents evidence for the use of more than three exemplars and at least two artists as well as two scribes making this an intentional and creative re presentation uniting literature religious and heroic in poetry and in prose He goes on to set it in the broader context of manuscript production in late Anglo Saxon England as one example among many of communities using old literature in new ways and of scribes working together making mistakes and learning
