DECLARER S MYTHS Draw trumps straight away Hold up an ace Win as cheaply as possible Play low in second seat Eight ever nine never Ruff losers in the dummy Finesse whenever you can Play on your longest suit first Lead towards high cards Ruff the defenders winners Lead low to a trick Run your longest suit Leave the big decision until last

DEFENDER S MYTHS Third hand high Return partner s suit Cover an honor with an honor Second hand low Capture an honor with an honor Lead through strength Discard from your weakest suit Score a ruff when you can Never give a ruff and sluff Split your honors Follow low when a trick is lost Don t ruff partner s winner David Bird who lives near Southampton England has written more than 100 books on the game Despite spending much of the year travelling he still finds time to write new stories every month for a host of magazines around the world usually featuring his best known characters the monks of St Titus Abbey He is also a regular commentator on BBO broadcasts of top level competitions

Inferences at Bridge Marshall Miles,2002 To be successful a bridge player has to think like a detective tracking down the distribution of the unseen hands Although many players are oblivious to them the tell tale clues are there just waiting to be noticed They are there just waiting to be noticed They are there in the auction and in the opening lead Every time a defender plays a card declarer receives information Similarly everything that declarer does can be turned to advantage by alert defenders There is even vital intelligence to be gained by thinking about what a player does not do In this book you will learn where to look for these clues and more importantly how to draw the correct inferences from them From there it is only a short step to making bids and plays based on those inference and thereby becoming a much better player
