Mehera-Meher: A Divine Romance David Fenster,2021-01-21 Mehera Meher is the story of an intimate Divine Romance between the Beloved and his closest disciple The three volume hardbound set draws deeply from Mehera's firsthand narrative gathered from over 200 hours of tape recordings made by the author David Fenster from the years 1974 to 1982. To this he painstakingly researched and added other historical material from Mehera and those close to her to create an epic 1700-page biography of Avatar Meher Baba's foremost woman disciple. This is the latest revised edition and contains numerous corrections and additions to previous editions. Mystery Fanfare Michael L. Cook, 1983. This work is a composite index of the complete runs of all mystery and detective fan magazines that have been published through 1981. Added to it are indexes of many magazines of related nature. This includes magazines that are primarily oriented to boys, book collecting, the paperback, and the pulp magazine hero characters, since these all have a place in the mystery and detective genre. Perplexing Plots David Bordwell, 2023-01-17. Nominated 2024 Edgar Allan Poe Award in the category of best critical biographical. Mystery Writers of America Shortlisted 2024 Agatha Awards Best Mystery Nonfiction. Malice Domestic Posthumous Winner 2023 IFCA Book Prize International Crime Fiction Association. Narrative innovation is typically seen as the domain of the avant garde. However, techniques such as nonlinear timelines, multiple points of view, and unreliable narration have long been part of American popular culture. How did forms and styles once regarded as difficult become familiar to audiences? In Perplexing Plots, David Bordwell reveals how crime fiction plays and films made unconventional narrative mainstream. He shows that since the nineteenth century, detective stories and suspense thrillers have allowed ambitious storytellers to experiment with narrative. Tales of crime and mystery became a training ground where audiences learned to appreciate artifice. These genres demand a sophisticated awareness of storytelling conventions; they play games with narrative form and toy with audience expectations. Bordwell examines how writers and directors have pushed, pulled, and collaborated with their audiences to change popular storytelling. He explores the plot engineering of figures such as Raymond Chandler, Agatha Christie, Dashiell Hammett, Patricia Highsmith, Alfred Hitchcock, Dorothy Sayers, and Quentin Tarantino, and traces how mainstream storytellers and modernist experimenters influenced one another's work. A sweeping kaleidoscopic account written in a lively conversational style, Perplexing Plots offers an ambitious new understanding of how movies, literature, theater, and popular culture have evolved over the past century. A Birthday Tribute to Rex Stout Jacques Barzun, 1965. Three Witnesses Rex Stout, 1994-09-01. Three witnesses hold all the clues in three crimes of passion that have even Nero Wolfe guessing to the very end. Did the dead millionaire who suddenly came back to life only to end up dead again write his own death warrant years before? Will the black Labrador retriever who follows Archie home prove that man's best friend is a killer's worst enemy? And in a case involving a telephone answering service with three very untalkative operators, could the great detective himself be the witness who will save an innocent man from the chair? Introduction by Susan Conant. It is always a treat to read a Nero Wolfe mystery. The man has entered our folklore. The New York Times Book Review: A grand master of the form, Rex Stout is one of America's greatest mystery writers, and his literary creation Nero Wolfe is one of the greatest fictional detectives of all time.
