The postsocialist contemporary Octavian Esanu,2021-11-23 The postsocialist contemporary joins a growing body of scholarship debating the definition and nature of contemporary art It comes to these debates from a historicist perspective taking as its point of departure one particular art programme initiated in Eastern Europe by the Hungarian American billionaire George Soros First implemented in Hungary the Soros Center for Contemporary Art SCCA expanded to another eighteen ex socialist countries throughout the 1990s Its mission was to build a western open society by means of art This book discusses how network managers and artists participated in the construction of this new social order by studying the programme s rise evolution impact and broader ideological and political consequences Rather than recounting a history its engages critically with contemporary art as the aesthetic paradigm of late capitalist market democracy The Establishment Responds K. Fahlenbrach,M. Klimke,J. Scharloth,L. Wong,2012-01-02 This volume fills this gap by examining the many ways in which political parties the business world foreign policymakers and the intelligence community experienced confronted and even actively contributed to domestic and transnational forms of dissent Music, City and the Roma under Communism Anna G. Piotrowska,2022-02-10 This book highlights the role of Romani musical presence in Central and Eastern Europe especially from Krakow in the Communist period and argues that music can and should be treated as one of the main points of relation between Roma and non Roma It discusses Romani performers and the complexity of their situation as conditioned by the political situations starkly affected by the Communist regime and then by its fall Against this backdrop the book engages with musician Stefan Dymiter known as Corro as the leader of his own street band unwelcome in the public space by the authorities merely tolerated by others but admired by many passers by and respected by his peer Romain musicians and international music stars It emphasizes the role of Romani musicians in Krakow in shaping the soundscape of the city while also demonstrating their collective and individual strategies to adapt to the new circumstances in terms of the preferred performative techniques repertoire and overall lifestyle The Soviet Union and Cold War Neutrality and Nonalignment in Europe Mark Kramer,Aryo Makko,Peter Ruggenthaler,2021-03-22 The Soviet Union and Cold War Neutrality and Nonalignment in Europe examines how the neutral European countries and the Soviet Union interacted after World War II Amid the Cold War division of Europe into Western and Eastern blocs several long time neutral countries abandoned neutrality and joined NATO Other countries remained neutral but were still perceived as a threat to the Soviet Union s sphere of influence Based on extensive archival research this volume offers state of the art essays about relations between Europe s neutral states and the Soviet Union during the Cold War and how these relations were perceived by other powers ECLAP 2012 Conference on Information Technologies for Performing Arts, Media Access and Entertainment Paolo Nesi,2012 It has been a long history of Information Technology innovations within the Cultural Heritage areas The Performing arts has also been enforced with a number of new innovations which unveil a range of synergies and possibilities Most of the technologies and innovations produced for digital libraries media entertainment and education can be exploited in the field of performing arts with adaptation and repurposing Performing arts offer many interesting challenges and opportunities for research and innovations and exploitation of cutting edge research results from interdisciplinary areas For these reasons the ECLAP 2012 can be regarded as a continuation of past conferences such as AXMEDIS and WEDELMUSIC both pressed by IEEE and FUP ECLAP is an European Commission project to create a social network and media access service for performing arts institutions in Europe to create the e library of performing arts exploiting innovative solutions coming from the ICT
