A Pure Solar World Paul Youngquist, 2016-10-25 Sun Ra said he came from Saturn Known on earth for his inventive music and extravagant stage shows he pioneered free form improvisation in an ensemble setting with the devoted band he called the Arkestra Sun Ra took jazz from the inner city to outer space infusing traditional swing with far out harmonies rhythms and sounds Described as the father of Afrofuturism Sun Ra created space music as a means of building a better future for American blacks here on earth A Pure Solar World Sun Ra and the Birth of Afrofuturism offers a spirited introduction to the life and work of this legendary but underappreciated musician composer and poet Paul Youngquist explores and assesses Sun Ra s wide ranging creative output music public preaching graphic design film and stage performance and poetry and connects his diverse undertakings to the culture and politics of his times including the space race the rise of technocracy the civil rights movement and even space age bachelor pad music By thoroughly examining the astro black mythology that Sun Ra espoused Youngquist masterfully demonstrates that he offered both a holistic response to a planet desperately in need of new visions and vibrations and a new kind of political activism that used popular culture to advance social change In a nation obsessed with space and confused about race Sun Ra aimed not just at assimilation for the socially disfranchised but even more at a wholesale transformation of American society and a more creative egalitarian world

Representing Structure in Phonology and Syntax Marc van Oostendorp, Henk van Riemsdijk, 2015-08-17 Formal grammars by definition need two parts a theory of computation or derivation and a theory of representation While recent attention in mainstream syntactic and phonological theory has been devoted to the former the papers in this volume aim to show that the importance of representational details is not diminished by the insights of such theories In the Absence of the Gift Anders Emil Rasmussen, 2015-09-01 By adopting ideas like development members of a Papua New Guinean community find themselves continuously negotiating what can be expected of a relative or a community member Nearly half the people born on the remote Mbuke Islands become teachers businessmen or bureaucrats in urban centers while those who stay at home ask migrant relatives What about me This detailed ethnography sheds light on remittance motivations and documents how terms like community can be useful in places otherwise permeated by kinship As the state withdraws Mbuke people explore what social ends might be reached through involvement with the cash economy
