Tager, 2017-03-27 Challenging the normative paradigm that school readiness is a positive and necessary objective for all young children this book asserts that the concept is a deficit based practice that fosters the continuation of discriminatory classifications Tager draws on findings of a qualitative study to reveal how the neoliberal agenda of school reform based on high stakes testing sorts and labels children as non ready affecting their overall schooling careers Tager reflects critically on the relationship between race and school readiness showing how the resulting exclusionary measures perpetuate the marginalization of low income Black children from an early age Disrupting expected notions of readiness is imperative to ending practices of structural classism and racism in early childhood education
