Paroled But Not Free:

Document Retrieval Index ,1974 Paroled But Not Free Rosemary J. Erickson,1973 Parole and Beyond Ruth Armstrong, Ioan Durnescu,2017-07-21 This book provides an assessment of contemporary international knowledge about the experiences of life after release from prison For over 100 years people leaving prison have been supervised by probation services but little has been written about how those who are supervised experience this process or how this process influences experiences post release Research suggests that the success or failure of supervision in terms of reoffending may be related to how it is experienced but little has been written about how supervision interacts with these experiences Despite this lack of grounded knowledge post prison supervision continues to grow internationally This book addresses issues relating to life after release through providing a vision of contemporary life after prison in different social and economic climates from those who are the subjects of this growing and changing form of penal power An engaging and timely study this book will be of particular interest to scholars of criminal justice and punishment The Joliet Prison Post ,1914

Federal Parole Decision-making: No title ,1982 Making It in the Free World Patricia O'Brien,2001-02-01 This is the first study to address the important but neglected topic of how women return to the free world after single or multiple experiences of incarceration It uses first person narratives and a comprehensive review of contemporary theory to provide useful suggestions for practitioners and policymakers concerned with responding to the increasing number of women in the criminal justice system Patricia O'Brien provides an in depth description of the experiences of women with a variety of criminal histories to elucidate elements that contributed to their desistance from crime The book challenges practitioners to be more proactive in recognizing the needs of this population and more responsive to these needs O'Brien suggests policy changes especially related to alternatives to incarceration The first person narratives of non recidivist women provide concrete and powerful examples of the crucial mix of ingredients any woman needs to remain free and empowered in a context of powerlessness and increasing social control The Delinquent ,1916 Federal Parole Decision-making ,1978
