Sardinian Chronicles:

Sardinian Chronicles Bernard Lortat-Jacob,1995-03-15 In Sardinian Chronicles Bernard Lortat Jacob poetically evokes Sardinian music through a series of encounters with individual musicians and their families Refusing to separate the music from the world in which it arises Lortat Jacob offers twelve vignettes focused on individuals such as Cocco a chicken farmer who deciphers the shapes of his fowl and the layout of his henhouses in the constellations of a summer sky and Pietro a sleep walking postman who divides his time between mail deliveries and impromptu serenades These vignettes bring to life an art still very much alive the music of villages with an oral tradition sung or played in the company of others Through his sensitive portraits of music makers and their families Lortat Jacob overcomes some of the epistemological and methodological dilemmas facing his field today while also giving the general reader a sense of the multiple and idiosyncratic ways that music is involved in everyday life With a foreword by Michel Leiris and a compact disc containing samples of the music being discussed this book constitutes a breakthrough in ethnomusicology that will also interest many in Mediterranean studies and European anthropology
