Nurses Enslaved:

Nurses Enslaved Yolanda Celbridge,2001-04-05 When European nurses are interned by the Japanese on the remote Pacific island of Okuna during World War Two they are forced into cruel familiarity with their captors almost feudal codes of punishment But soon their submission becomes a matter of pride forcing the camp s officers to question who s really in control until only one thing s for sure no one s in a hurry for the war to end The African-American Family in Slavery and Emancipation Wilma A. Dunaway,2003-04-14 Table of contents Motherhood, Childlessness and the Care of Children in Atlantic Slave Societies Camillia Cowling,Maria Helena Pereira Toledo Machado,Diana Paton,Emily West,2020-05-21 This book provides critical perspectives on the multiple forms of mothering that took place in Atlantic slave societies Facing repeated child death mothering was a site of trauma and grief for many even as slaveholders romanticized enslaved women s work in caring for slaveholders children Examining a wide range of societies including medieval Spain Brazil and New England and including the work of historians based in Brazil Cuba the United States and Britain this collection breaks new ground in demonstrating the importance of mothering for the perpetuation of slavery and the complexity of the experience of motherhood in such circumstances This pathbreaking collection on all aspects of the experience politics and representations of motherhood under Atlantic slavery analyses societies across the Atlantic world and will be of interest to those studying the history of slavery as well as those studying mothering throughout history This book comprises two special issues originally published in Slavery Abolition and Women s History Review Nursing History Review, Volume 29 Arlene W. Keeling, PhD, RN, FAAN,2021-01-15 Nursing History Review an annual peer reviewed publication of the American Association for the History of Nursing is a showcase for the most significant current research on nursing history Regular sections include scholarly articles as well as reviews of the latest media publications on nursing and healthcare history Historians researchers and individuals fascinated with the rich field of nursing will find Nursing History Review an important resource The 29th volume of the review features a new section Hidden in Plain Sight dedicated to highlighting nurses from underrepresented groups Included in Volume 29 Rethinking the Tulsa Race Riot The Nurses of Ellis Island Caring for the Huddled Masses Different Stories Similar Results Urban and Rural Nursing in the First Half of the Twentieth Century The Nursing of the All Saints Sisters Those of Little Note Enslaved Plantation Sick Nurses Contested Bodies Sasha Turner,2017-05-05 It is often thought that slaveholders only began to show an interest in female slaves reproductive health after the British government banned the importation of Africans into its West Indian colonies in 1807 However as Sasha Turner shows in this illuminating study for almost thirty years before the slave trade ended Jamaican slaveholders and doctors adjusted slave women s labor discipline and health care to increase birth rates and ensure that infants lived to become adult workers Although slaves interests in healthy pregnancies and babies aligned with those of their masters enslaved mothers healers family and community members distrusted their owners medicine and benevolence Turner contends that the social bonds and cultural practices created around reproductive health care and childbirth challenged the economic purposes slaveholders gave to birthing and raising children Through powerful stories that place the reader on the ground in plantation era Jamaica Contested Bodies reveals enslaved women s contrasting ideas about maternity and raising children which put them at odds not only with their owners but sometimes with abolitionists and enslaved men Turner argues that as the source of new labor these women created rituals customs and relationships around pregnancy childbirth and childrearing that enabled them at times to dictate the nature and pace of their work as well as their value Drawing on a wide range of sources including plantation records abolitionist treatises legislative documents slave narratives runaway advertisements proslavery literature and planter correspondence Contested Bodies yields a fresh account of how the end of the slave trade changed the bodily experiences of those still enslaved in Jamaica Unequal Sisters Stephanie Narrow, Kim Cary Warren, Judy Tzu-Chun Wu, Vicki L Ruiz, 2023-08-28 Unequal Sisters has become a beloved and classic reader providing an unparalleled resource for understanding women s history in the United States today First published in 1990 the book revolutionized the field with its broad multicultural approach emphasizing feminist perspectives on race ethnicity region and sexuality and covering the colonial period to the present day Now in its fifth edition the book presents an even wider variety of women s experiences This new edition explores the connections between the past and the present and highlights the analysis of queerness transgender identity disability the rise of the carceral state and the bureaucratization and militarization of migration There is also more coverage of Indigenous and Pacific Islander women The book is structured around thematic clusters conceptual methodological approaches to women s history bodies sexuality and kinship and agency and activism This classic work has incorporated the feedback of educators in the field to make it the most user friendly version to date and will be of interest to students and scholars of women s history gender and sexuality studies and the history of race and ethnicity

Neither Lady Nor Slave Susanna Delfino, Michele Gillespie, 2002 Neither Lady nor Slave Working Women of the Old South Macmillan Encyclopedia of World Slavery Paul Finkelman, Joseph Calder Miller, 1998 Covering the history of human slavery in Asia Europe Africa the Americas and the United States this volume has entries for individuals and such topics as the details of living conditions resistance and rebellion law and emancipation and theory and politics Judicial Cases Concerning American Slavery and the Negro Helen Tunnicliff Catterall, James John Hayden, 1929 Covers cases up through 1875 Slave Counterpoint Philip D. Morgan, 2012-12-01 On the eve of the American Revolution nearly three quarters of all African Americans in mainland British America lived in two regions the Chesapeake centered in Virginia and the Lowcountry with its hub in South Carolina Here Philip Morgan compares and contrasts African American life in these two regional black cultures exploring the differences as well as the similarities The result is a detailed and comprehensive view of slave life in the colonial American South Morgan explores the role of land and labor in shaping culture the everyday contacts of masters and slaves that defined the possibilities and limitations of cultural exchange and finally the interior lives of blacks their social relations their family and kin ties and the major symbolic dimensions of life language play and religion He provides a balanced appreciation for the oppressiveness of bondage and for the ability of slaves to shape their lives showing that whatever the constraints slaves contributed to the making of their history Victims of a brutal dehumanizing system slaves nevertheless strove to create order in their lives to preserve their humanity to achieve dignity and to sustain dreams of a better future

Race and the Archaeology of Identity Charles E. Orser,2001 Race is not a subject most people associate with archaeological research Yet because of archaeologists interest in long time spans they are perfectly positioned to investigate the naturalness of racial designations through time Race and the Archaeology of Identity brings together twelve of America s most perceptive and talented historical archaeologists Their focus is on the recent archaeological record stretching geographically from Jamaica to northern Michigan their time frame is from colonial days to the late nineteenth century and their subjects range from frontier fur traders to Victorian city dwellers Using textual and archaeological sources contributors explore such topics as the connections of race to economics the creation and maintenance of institutionalized poverty the role of race in structuring and guiding intercultural connections and the importance of race in creating and defining space Contributors explore such topics as the connections of race to economics the role of race in structuring and guiding intercultural connections and the importance of race in creating and defining space
