The Screen Image of Youth Ruth M. Goldstein, Edith Zornow, 1980 The Dominion of Youth Cynthia

Comacchio, 2006-06-02 Adolescence like childhood is more than a biologically defined life stage it is also a sociohistorical construction The meaning and experience of adolescence are reformulated according to societal needs evolving scientific precepts and national aspirations relative to historic conditions Although adolescence was by no means a discovery of the early twentieth century it did assume an identifiably modern form during the years between the Great War and 1950 The Dominion of Youth Adolescence and the Making of Modern Canada 1920 to 1950 captures what it meant for young Canadians to inhabit this liminal stage of life within the context of a young nation caught up in the self formation and historic transformation that would make modern Canada Because the young at this time were seen paradoxically as both the hope of the nation and the source of its possible degeneration new policies and institutions were developed to deal with the problem of youth This history considers how young Canadians made the transition to adulthood during a period that was developmental both for youth and for a nation also working toward individuation During the years considered here those who occupied this dominion of youth would see their experiences more clearly demarcated by generation and culture than ever before With this book Cynthia Comacchio offers the first detailed study of adolescence in early twentieth century Canada and demonstrates how young Canadians of the period became the nation's first modern teenagers Youth's Companion, 1928

Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures Rochona Majumdar, 2021-10-12 Co Winner 2023 Chidananda Dasgupta Award for the Best Writing on Cinema Chidananda Dasgupta Memorial Trust Shortlisted 2022 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association Longlisted 2022 Moving Image Book Award Kraszna Krausz Foundation The project of Indian art cinema began in the years following independence in 1947 at once evoking the global reach of the term art film and speaking to the aspirations of the new nation state In this pioneering book Rochona Majumdar examines key works of Indian art cinema to demonstrate how film emerged as a mode of doing history and that in so doing it anticipated some of the most influential insights of postcolonial thought Majumdar details how filmmakers as well as a host of film societies and publications sought to foster a new cinematic culture for the new nation fueled by enthusiasm for a future of progress and development Good films would help make good citizens art cinema would not only earn global prestige but also shape discerning individuals capable of exercising aesthetic and political judgment During the 1960s however Satyajit Ray Mrinal Sen and Ritwik Ghatak the leading figures of Indian art cinema became disillusioned with the belief that film was integral to national development Instead Majumdar contends their works captured the unresolvable contradictions of the postcolonial present which pointed toward possible yet unrealized futures Analyzing the films of Ray Sen and Ghatak and working through previously unexplored archives of film society publications Majumdar offers a radical reinterpretation of Indian film history Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures offers sweeping new insights into film's relationship with the postcolonial condition and its role in decolonial imaginations of the future Popular Radio and Television ,1926 Celebrity and Power P. David Marshall,1997

The celebrity is an ambiguous figure in contemporary culture Simultaneously celebrated and denigrated stars represent not only the embodiment of success but also the ultimate construction of false value They are a peculiar form of public subjectivity that negotiates the tension between a democratic culture of access and a consumer capitalist culture of excess

Celebrity and Power examines this dynamic questioning the cultural forces behind our need to become endlessly embroiled with the construction and collapse of celebrities Through detailed analysis of figures from Tom Cruise to Oprah Winfrey to the commercial pop music sensation New Kids on the Block author and cultural critic P David Marshall investigates the general public s desire to associate with celebrity He examines various kinds of stars questioning the needs each type fulfills in our lives and relating these needs to particular entertainment media Marshall asks why enigmatic distant stars populate the silver screen while television constructs approachable everyman figures and popular music features audience identified celebrity personalities He looks at the significance of stars who amass cultlike followings as well as those who appear to prompt outright rejection Celebrity and Power identifies the forces that have enveloped the development of democratic culture and their partial resolution through a redefined public sphere populated by celebrities Marshall argues that the new concern with the masses that characterizes modern capitalism promotes figures who can be seen as part of the crowd but who are articulated as individuals As such they provide a model of self differentiation that furthers an economy in which product consumption is thought to bestow individualism and personality

Bridging the fields of media studies film studies communications and popular culture Marshall s volume is a unique resource for students and researchers in all of these disciplines as well as for the general reader P David Marshall is director of the Media and Cultural Studies Centre in the Department of English University of Queensland in Australia Images of Youth Michael A. Mucherera,Chris Kiesling,Anne Kiome Gatobu,2020-07-31 This text captures the profound unacknowledged crisis that is unique to children of first generation immigrants by virtue of their being caught in a world of their parents culture of origin and their social experience in the United States The book makes the case for three levels of adolescent crisis unique to this population namely the general developmental crisis experienced by all adolescents as articulated by developmental theories the cultural identity crises experienced by ethnic minority persons as they encounter the layered racialization of American history and finally the unique crisis that arises from conflicting cultural values and morals when first generation immigrant parents wanting to preserve native values clash with their children who seek belonging in the Western context in which they currently reside The book traces the psychological emotional and social roots of the crisis The authors representing immigrants from different continents portray the unique ethnic minority challenges they encounter in coming to the US exemplifying further the tri level crisis Finally the book offers ways that parents can be proactive in helping their children navigate the potential tri level crisis through ITAV It Takes a Village camps and family palavers

Gita Darshan: Discourses on the Bhagavad Gita by Osho (Volume 1): Adhyaya 1 - Yoga of Sorrow (Vishad Yoga), Adhyaya 2 - Yoga of Knowledge (Samkhya Yoga) Osho, Vaidehe Vadgama, Alvaro Ruffo Della Scaletta, 2025-09-05 Osho's talks on the Bhagavad Gita offer a fresh perspective on the extraordinary dialogues between Krishna and Arjuna They reveal an unknown aspect of Krishna's multifaceted personality Probably nobody before Osho has understood Krishna's extraordinary insights so deeply Considered a divine incarnation Krishna is a complete avatar yet until now no one had brought to light his genius as a psychologist Osho a twentieth century enlightened master translates ancient wisdom into modern language making it more easily understandable to the contemporary seeker just like Arjuna was thousands of years ago According to me I would call Krishna the father of psychology He is the first individual to have understood the wavering mind the mind in conflict He has seen the mind full of sorrow the willpower fragmented and has tried to bring integrity unity and wholeness to it He is the first individual to introduce psychoanalysis and explore the human mind
