Screenwriters on Screen-Writing Joel Engel, 1995-04 Before any lights camera or action there s the script arguably the most important single element in filmmaking and Screenwriters on Screen Writing introduces the men and women responsible for the screenplays that have produced some of the most successful and acclaimed films in Hollywood history In each interview not only do the writers explore the craft and technique of creating a filmic blueprint but they recount the colorful tales of coming up in the ranks of the movie business and of bringing their stories to the screen in a way that only natural born storytellers such as themselves can. These and other screenwriters have garnered the attention of the movie-going population not only with their words but with headlines announcing the sales of their scripts for hundreds of thousands and sometimes millions of dollars. Anyone interested in writing, making or learning about movies will enjoy reading this fascinating behind-the-scenes compendium that brings together some of the most prominent and talented screenwriters in modern-day filmmaking. Screenwriters interviewed include Bruce Joel Rubin (Ghost), Ernest Lehman (North by Northwest), Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Amy Holden Jones (Indecent Proposal), Ted Tally (The Silence of the Lambs), Horton Foote (To Kill a Mockingbird), Tender Mercies, Andrew Bergman (The In-Laws), Caroline Thompson (Edward Scissorhands), Richard LaGravenese (The Fisher King), and Robert Towne (Chinatown).

Cultural Semantics and Social Cognition, Carsten Levisen, 2012. Presenting original, detailed studies of keywords of Danish, this book breaks new ground for the study of language and cultural values. Based on evidence from the semantic categories of everyday language such as the Danish concept of hygge (roughly meaning pleasant togetherness), the book provides an integrative socio-cognitive framework for studying and understanding language-particular universes. It is argued that the worlds we live in are not linguistically and conceptually neutral but rather that speakers who live by Danish concepts are likely to pay attention to their world in ways suggested by central Danish keywords and lexical grids. By means of a sophisticated semantic methodology, the author accounts for the meanings of even highly culture-specific and untranslatable linguistic concepts. The book offers new tools for comparative research into the diversity of semantic and cultural systems in contemporary Europe. Additionally, it contributes to the emerging discipline of cultural semantics and to the ongoing debates of linguistic diversity, metalanguage, and the use of linguistic evidence in studies of culture and social cognition.
