История народа хунну, 1998 Scribbling Women Elaine Showalter, 1997 Including pieces by Edith Wharton Kate Chopin Willa Cather Louisa May Alcott and Charlotte Perkins Gilman as well as stories by lesser known writers SCRIBBLING WOMEN offers a sampling of the brilliant accomplishment of women writing in the 19th century America The writers in this collection use psychological insight parable parody sensationalism and satire to explore and undermine the feminine stereotypes inflicted upon them The Cambridge Introduction to Nathaniel Hawthorne Leland S. Person, 2007-04-05 As the author of The Scarlet Letter Nathaniel Hawthorne has been established as a major writer of the nineteenth century and the most prominent chronicler of New England and its colonial history This introductory book for students coming to Hawthorne for the first time outlines his life and writings in a clear and accessible style Leland S Person also explains some of the significant cultural and social movements that influenced Hawthorne's most important writings Puritanism Transcendentalism and Feminism The major works including The Scarlet Letter The House of the Seven Gables and The Blithedale Romance as well as Hawthorne's important short stories and non-fiction are analysed in detail The book also includes a brief history and survey of Hawthorne scholarship with special emphasis on recent studies Students of nineteenth century American literature will find this a rewarding and engaging introduction to this remarkable writer Scribbling Women & the Short Story Form Ellen Burton Harrington, 2007 The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver, 2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi-faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther

Telling Women's Lives Judy Long,1999-05-01 For centuries the great man format and masculine discourse of biography and autobiography have eclipsed women If we accept this history we remain ignorant of Lady Sarashina a Japanese woman of the Heian period whose book survives from the 11th century We overlook Margaret Cavendish and Dame Julian two early English autobiographers And we fail to consider sufficiently slave narratives oral histories or lesbian coming out stories Telling Women's Lives assesses existing traditions of autobiography and biography in search of a method capable of conveying the distinctive content of women's lives while retaining the tenor of feminine subjectivity Drawing on feminist research methodologies of the past two decades as well as anthropology and sociology Long paves the way for the formulation of an emergent feminist methodology for telling women's lives This highly original study seeks to revise and recreate the genre so as to accommodate a feminine discourse narrator reader and subject The messiness of women's lives the daily work and detail that men have programmatically excluded acquires new meaning as Long develops here an innovative theory of sociobiography

The Threads of The Scarlet Letter Richard Kopley,2003 The Threads of The Scarlet Letter offers new discoveries regarding the origins of Hawthorne's masterpiece as well as critical interpretations based on these discoveries Relying on a blend of close reading biographical analysis and archival research this book demonstrates anew the power of traditional scholarship The Threads of The Scarlet Letter illuminates Hawthorne's transformation of Poe's celebrated tale The Tell Tale Heart and Lowell's long neglected poem A Legend of Brittany and identifying the hitherto unknown author of the seminal narrative The Salem Belle investigates Hawthorne's brilliant borrowing from that novel as well The present volume argues that Hawthorne repeatedly attenuated his sources but also allowed sufficient detail to permit their recognition Furthermore this volume elaborates Hawthorne's reworking of formal traditions in The Scarlet Letter traditions that importantly clarify the meaning of the whole The Scarlet Letter is shown to be a complex rendering of man's fall and redemption and a triumphant assertion of literary vocation. The Threads of The Scarlet Letter includes a useful bibliographical overview of the history of the study of the origins of Hawthorne's greatest work. The Cambridge Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Women's Writing Dale M. Bauer, Philip Gould, 2001-11-15 Providing an overview of the history of writing by women in the period this 2001 Companion establishes the context in which this writing emerged and traces the origin of the terms which have traditionally defined the debate. It includes essays on topics of recent concern such as women and war, erotic violence, the liberating and disciplinary effects of religion, and examines the work of a variety of women writers including Harriet Beecher Stowe, Rebecca Harding Davis, and Louisa May Alcott. The volume plots new directions for the study of American literary history and provides several valuable tools for students including a chronology of works and suggestions for further reading. Style and the Scribbling Women Mary P. Hiatt, 1993-01-30 Derogation of nineteenth century women novelists was often the immediate response to their works. While modern feminist scholarship has repudiated this view of scribbling women, finding much of value in both substance and style in this body of literature, many critics and academics remain uninformed and continue to present an almost totally male canon as representative of meritorious writing of this period. The present work undertakes an empirical test of stereotypical notions about women's and men's nineteenth century fiction, utilizing the computer to examine 80,000 words of running text from passages randomly chosen in twenty novels each by women and men. This material is analyzed for occurrences of various aspects of writing style such as similes, parallel structures, rhetorical devices, and certain adverbs and adjectives, as well as for sentence length and complexity. That these nonimpressionistic findings show no overwhelming gender differences should finally put to rest traditional negative stereotypes about nineteenth century women writers. The author of an empirical analysis of twentieth century fiction by men and women, Professor Hiatt uses these previous findings for a comparison of twentieth and nineteenth century materials. The twentieth century analysis showed greater linguistic and stylistic disparities between men's and women's writing. A comparison with the nineteenth century materials indicates that diachronic shifts have occurred much more broadly and drastically in fiction by male authors. Carefully documented and written, this study will be valuable for researchers and students of women's studies, nineteenth century American literature, linguistics, stylistics, and computer applications in the humanities. Littell's Living Age, 1889 A People's Contest Phillip Shaw Paludan, 1996 Pt 1 Learning war: Communities go to war, Forging foreign and domestic weapons, The ways of making war, The dialogue of politics, 1861-1862 pt 2 Making war: Congress and the capitalists, Congress and the second American system, Agriculture and the benefits of war, Industrial workers and the costs of war, The meanings of emancipation, The dialogue of politics, loyalty and unity, 1863-1864 pt 3 Finding war's meanings: World images of war, Frankenstein and Everyman, Sherman, Grant, and modern war, The scars of war, The coming of the Lord, religion in the Civil War era, Conclusion. The Development of the American Short Story Fred Lewis Pattee, 1923 Poet-lore.
