—Booklist

"The New Englander's prose is a model for anyone who looks to give readers in his crime fiction. Packed with incidents, strong motives, red herrings, very observations, with good characters that keep in your memory. What more can you ask for? For my money, Ed Gorman is one of the best writers to come from the field in the past several years."

—Bill Pressler

"Superbly-paced New Englander blends. With a white as a light and a successful way for the crime of Boston firm, it stands strong for one of the best detective stories. Gorman reminds where books like."
