life on girls as victims of class prejudice as well as sexual and racial violence but they also portray girls and women as empowering agents survivors and leaders They do so with a high voltage creative charge As progressive pioneers who forayed into unknown literary terrain and experimented with a variety of genres the neglected American women writers introduced in this collection themselves emerge as role models whose innovative contribution to nineteenth century literature the essays celebrate

(Re)Interpretations Lisa Dresdner, Laurel S. Peterson, 2009-01-14 Patriarchal institutions govern all aspects of women's lives their minds their bodies and their souls Additionally they govern the ways in which women are perceived by others and the ways in which women perceive themselves Re Interpretations The Shapes of Justice in Women's Experience is a collection of essays on language religion war sex trafficking and medicine the patriarchal structures that form the basis of western society and thus are in many ways inherently unjust The essays illustrate the multitude of ways that women have found to work within and without these structures to create justice Traditional theories of justice cast it as a cardinal virtue unbiased and impartial The essays in this book however remove justice from the abstract and return it to the specific most of the essays use personal narratives to highlight the connections all people share The women discussed here are challenging the authority of existing patriarchal narratives by telling their versions and thus calling attention to and challenging their own political and social realities Reflecting a focus on global connectedness and interdisciplinarity the writers of these essays aim not only to raise questions but also to show ways in which women are creating new pathways for themselves Only by exploring solutions will women reclaim justice From L A to Zimbabwe women have stories to tell about their experiences of justice in the inherently patriarchal institutions of Language Religion War Sex Trafficking and Medicine This relevant and thought provoking collection captures the trials that women across the world face and the hope they create through their courageous actions Through both personal narrative and factual overview these essays emphasize that as people committed to justice women must not simply raise the questions but they must also explore solutions in order to reclaim justice for themselves their daughters their sisters and their mothers Contributors Yifat Bitton Stephany Ryan Cate Jo Scott Coe Susan Dewey Carmela Epright Carmen Faymonville Adam Gaynor Pauline Greenhill Denise Handlarski Alison Jobe Marc J W de Jong Jodie M Lawston Jody Lisberger Kristy Maher Susan Maloney Mickias Musiyiwa Ruben Murillo Annemarie Profanter Natalie Wilson and J Carter Wood Showing the usefulness and power of storytelling to change women's lives this book is a welcome contribution to a new type of feminist scholarship that engages insightfully with the questions and concerns rooted in women's practices of change

Mar a Pilar Aquino Professor of Theology and Religious Studies University of San Diego and 2008-09 Visiting Professor of Theology Harvard Divinity School As Chair of Women's Studies many anthologies come across my desk for review Only one or two include the more contemporary legal issues related to war and sex trafficking Re Interpretations fills this gap and the complexities of how and by whom behavior is defined are thoughtfully examined and clearly illuminated Nancy S Harris Ph D Department of Anthropology and Sociology and Chair Women's Studies at Manhattanville College this impressive far reaching collection of essays illuminates the gendered nature of global political institutions The collection refreshingly presents women as empowered activists not victims struggling against the patriarchal systems that continue to obstruct social justice and equality It is an important contribution to feminist jurisprudence Cara Tuttle Bell J D Center for Women's Gender Studies at USC Upstate Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past Catalogue of Paintings in the Crocker Art Gallery, Sacramento, California E.B. Crocker Art Gallery, 1876 Democratic Institutions in Guatemala Omar Sanchez-Sibony, 2024-12-20 This book advances knowledge about Guatemala's democracy by embedding the country in recent conceptual and theoretical work in comparative politics and seeks to shed light upon the stubborn realities and challenges afflicting Guatemalan democracy today Library Journal, 2001 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Clientelism, Social Policy, and the Quality of Democracy Diego Abente Brun, Larry Diamond, 2014-03 Abente Brun and Diamond invited some of the best social scientists in the field to systematically explore how political clientelism works and evolves in the context of modern developing democracies with particular reference to social policies aimed at reducing poverty Clientelism Social Policy and the Quality of Democracy is balanced between a section devoted to understanding clientelism's infamous effects and history in Latin America and a section that draws out implications for other regions specifically Africa Southeast Asia and Eastern and Central Europe Catalogue of Paintings in the E. Valdés, 2023-04-03 Diego Velázquez's portrait of Juan de Pareja ca 1608 1670 has long been a landmark of European art but this provocative study focuses on its subject an enslaved man who went on to build his own successful career as an artist This catalogue the first scholarly monograph on Pareja discusses the painter's ties to the Madrid School of the 1660s and revises our understanding of artistic production during Spain's Golden Age with a focus on enslaved artists and artisans. The authors illuminate the highly skilled labor within Seville's multiracial society, the role of Black saints and confraternities in the promotion of Catholicism among enslaved populations, and early twentieth-century scholar Arturo Schomburg's project to recover Pareja's legacy. The book also includes the first illustrated and annotated list of known works attributed to Pareja. Kings as Collectors High Museum of Art, Denver Art Museum, 2006.
