

Civilisation

Orelsan
arr. by Tilán Dossogne

The musical score is presented in two systems. The first system contains 12 staves, and the second system contains 12 staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, and dynamic markings. The score is arranged for a large ensemble, with multiple staves for each instrument family. The music features complex rhythmic patterns and melodic lines. The first system shows a dense arrangement of notes, with some staves having long horizontal lines indicating sustained notes or rests. The second system continues the composition with similar complexity, including some staves with repeated rhythmic patterns. The overall style is contemporary and detailed.
