Music And Society The Politics Of Composition Performance And Reception:

Music and Society Richard Leppert, Susan McClary, 1989-06-15 This provocative volume of essays is now available in paperback The contributors to this volume musicologists sociologists cultural theorists all challenge the view that music occupies an autonomous aesthetic sphere Recently socially and politically grounded enterprises such as feminism semiotics and deconstruction have effected a major transformation in the ways in which the arts and humanities are studied leading in turn to a systematic investigation of the implicit assumptions underlying the critical methods of the last two hundred years Influenced by these approaches the writers here question a prevailing ideology that insists there is a division between music and society and examine the ways in which the two do in fact interact and mediate one another within and across socio cultural boundaries
