

Wedding March

Felix Mendelssohn

$\text{♩} = 150$

The first system of musical notation for the piano accompaniment of 'Wedding March'. It consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The music begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked as quarter note = 150. The first four measures feature a treble staff with eighth-note patterns and triplets, while the bass staff is mostly silent. The fifth measure shows a more active bass line with eighth-note patterns.

The second system of musical notation, measures 6 through 11. Both the treble and bass staves are active, featuring a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The treble staff includes some triplet markings. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with eighth notes.

The third system of musical notation, measures 12 through 17. The notation continues with similar rhythmic patterns. A prominent red button with a white downward arrow and the word 'DOWNLOAD' in white capital letters is overlaid on the lower part of this system.

The fourth system of musical notation, measures 18 through 23. The piece concludes with a final flourish in the treble staff and a series of chords in the bass staff. The tempo marking  $\text{♩} = 150$  is visible at the beginning of this system.
