Country Music Dayton Duncan,Ken Burns,2019-09-10 A gorgeously illustrated and hugely entertaining story of America s most popular music and the singers and songwriters who captivated entertained and consoled listeners throughout the twentieth century based on the eight part film series This fascinating history begins where country music itself emerged the American South where people sang to themselves and to their families at home and in church and where they danced to fiddle tunes on Saturday nights With the birth of radio in the 1920s the songs moved from small towns mountain hollers and the wide open West to become the music of an entire nation a diverse range of sounds and styles from honky tonk to gospel to bluegrass to rockabilly leading up through the decades to the music's massive commercial success today. But above all Country Music is the story of the musicians. Here is Hank Williams's tragic honky tonk life, Dolly Parton rising to fame from a dirt-poor childhood, and Loretta Lynn turning her experiences into songs that spoke to women everywhere. Here too are interviews with the genre's biggest stars, including the likes of Merle Haggard to Garth Brooks to Rosanne Cash. Rife with rare photographs and endlessly fascinating anecdotes, the stories in this sweeping yet intimate history will captivate longtime country fans and introduce new listeners to an extraordinary body of music that lies at the very center of the American experience. Grove's Dictionary of Music and Musicians J. The Great Depression is a part of real history that really did happen. In 1929 was when it was really bad. People were hungry, there were no jobs, and no money. I was born in 1929 and the depression went all through the twenties and thirties and into the early forties, but times were getting bad. The depression was taking its toll on everything and everyone. A little money went a long way, but there was no money, and to top everything off, the stock market fell and everyone lost their money. In the stock market, the banks closed their doors, no one could get their money out. My father had a friend that lost all of his money in the bank in 1929. If you didn't live in this time of history, you can't imagine what life was like. I watched my father walk 4 miles to work in a rock quarry, carrying his lunch box, then walk home after sledging rock all day. My mother raised a vegetable garden and canned a lot of food, so we would have food for the winter. This is just a preview. Now, how did I come up with the name of my book, The Great Depression Put to Music: Song and Dance? My father played violin and mother played piano. My sister and I sang. Song, I grew up to teach dance. Dance.
