Musical Evenings:

Musical times and singing-class circular ,1891 Music in Chopin's Warsaw Halina Goldberg,2008-03-04 Music in Chopin's Warsaw examines the rich musical environment of Fryderyk Chopin's youth largely unknown to the English speaking world and places Chopin's early works in the context of this milieu Halina Goldberg provides a historiographic perspective that allows a new and better understanding of Poland's cultural and musical circumstances Chopin's Warsaw emerges as a vibrant European city that was home to an opera house various smaller theaters one of the earliest modern conservatories in Europe several societies which organized concerts musically active churches spirited salon life music publishers and bookstores instrument builders and for a short time even a weekly paper devoted to music Warsaw was aware of and in tune with the most recent European styles and fashions in music but it was also the cradle of a vernacular musical language that was initiated by the generation of Polish composers before Chopin and which found its full realization in his work Significantly this period of cultural revival in the Polish capital coincided with the duration of Chopin's stay there from his infancy in 1810 to his final departure from his homeland in 1830 An uncanny convergence of political economic social and cultural circumstances generated the dynamic musical artistic and intellectual environment that nurtured the developing genius Had Chopin been born a decade earlier or a decade later Goldberg argues the capital devastated by warfare and stripped of all cultural institutions could not have provided support for his talent The young composer would have been compelled to seek musical education abroad and thus would have been deprived of the specifically Polish experience so central to his musical style A rigorously researched and fascinating look at the Warsaw in which Chopin grew up this book will appeal to students and scholars of nineteenth century music as well as music lovers and performers Music William Smythe Babcock Mathews,1896 The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1910 Musical Acoustics John Broadhouse,1905 Musical News ,1899 Annual Festival of the Worcester County Musical Association ,1909 The Song Messenger of the North-West ,1868 The Musical Times ,1908 Monthly musical record ,1884 My Musical Life Nikolay Rimsky-Korsakov,1923 The Musical Quarterly Oscar George Sonneck,1928 Vincent Novello (1781-1861) Fiona M. Palmer,2017-02-10 Today Vincent Novello 1781 1861 is remembered as the father of the music publishing firm Fiona Palmer's evaluation of Novello the man and the musician in the marketplace draws on rich primary sources It is the first to provide a rounded view of his life and work and the nature of his importance both in his own time and to posterity Novello's early musical training particularly his experience of music making in London's embassy chapels influenced him profoundly His practical experience as director of music at the Portuguese Embassy Chapel in Mayfair informed his approach to editing and arranging Fundamental moral and social attitudes underpinned Novello's progress Ideas on religion education and the function of family and friendship within society shaped his life choices The Novello family lived in turbulent times and was widely read discussing politics and religion and not only the arts at its social gatherings

Within Vincent and Mary Novello's close circle were radical thinkers with republican views such as Leigh Hunt and Charles Cowden Clarke who saw sociability as a means of reorganizing society. Thematic studies focus on Novello as practical musician and educator as editor and as composer. His connections with institutions such as the Covent Garden and Pantheon Theatres, the Philharmonic Society and Moorfields Chapel together with his adjudicating and teaching activities are examined. In his wide-ranging editorial work, Novello found his true vocation, positioning himself as preservationist, pioneer and philanthropist. His work as composer, though unremarkable in quality, mirrored the demands and expectations of his consumers. Novello emerges from this study as a visionary who single-mindedly pursued greater musical knowledge for the benefit of everyone. The Musical Herald, 1893 The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular, 1915
