Murder And Walking Spirits:

Murder & Walking Spirits Robertson Davies,1992 Murder and Walking Spirits Robertson Davies,1991 Murdered by his wife s lover Gil must spend his afterlife seated next to his murderer at a film festival where he views the exploits of his ancestors from the Revolutionary era to his parents time Murder and Walking Spirits 8-Copy Robertson Davies,1992-12-01 Characters and Passages from Note-books Samuel Butler,1908 Robertson Davies Val Ross,2009-02-24 National bestseller and a Globe and Mail Best Book A fascinating larger than life character Davies left a treasure trove of stories about him when he died in 1995 expertly arranged here into a revealing portrait From his student days onward Robertson Davies made a huge impression on those around him He was so clearly bound for a glorious future that some young friends even carefully preserved his letters And everyone remembered their encounters with him Later in life as a world famous writer perhaps Canada s pre eminent man of letters who looked like Jehovah he attracted people eager to meet him who also vividly remembered their meetings So when Val Ross set out in search of people s memories she was faced with a wonderful embarrassment of riches The one hundred or so contributors here range very widely There are family memories of course and memories from colleagues in the academic world who knew him as a professor and the founding master of Massey College at the University of Toronto Predictably there are other major writers like Margaret Atwood and John Irving Less predictably there are people from the world of Hollywood such as Norman Jewison and David Cronenberg who remembers Davies on set peering through a camera lens as he researched his newest novel And we even hear from his barber and from his gardener Theo Henkenhaf Some speakers contribute just a lively paragraph others several pages Yet all of them through the magic of Val Ross s art help to create an intriguing full colour portrait of a complex man beloved by millions of readers around the world A Bibliography of Robertson Davies Carl Spadoni,Judith Skelton Grant,2014-08-01 Robertson Davies 1913 1995 one of Canada s most distinguished authors of the twentieth century was known for his work as a novelist playwright critic journalist and professor This descriptive bibliography is dedicated to his writing career covering all publications from his first venture into print at the age of nine to works published posthumously to 2011 Entries include each of Davies signed publications and those pseudonymous or anonymous writings he acknowledged having written Included are his plays novels journalism academic writing translations interviews speeches lectures unsigned articles and editorials films audio recordings and multimedia editions Also listed is a generous sampling of unsigned articles and editorials Using Davies archives and the archives of other authors organizations and publishers Carl Spadoni and Judith Skelton Grant present A Bibliography of Robertson Davies to serve the research demands of Canadian literature and book history scholars Afterlife and Narrative in Contemporary Fiction Alice Bennett,2012-07-06 Afterlife and Narrative explores why life after death is such a potent cultural concept today and why it is such an attractive prospect for modern fiction The book mines a rich vein of imagined afterlives from the temporal experiments of Martin Amis s Time s Arrow to narration from heaven in Alice Sebold's The Lovely Bones Aspects of Robertson Davies' Novels Victor J. Lams, 2009

Completing the survey begun in Lams Cornish Trilogy volume Aspects of Robertson Davies Novels discusses the Salterton and Deptford trilogies along with Davies last two novels Murder it is best understood as an implicit spiritual history of Canada which is adumbrated in the generational experience of a single Canadian family The Cunning Man concludes Davies career with a narrative as rewardingly complex as any of the Cornish trilogy novels For Your Eye Alone Robertson Davies, 2002
Robertson Davies one of the twentieth century's most distinguished authors brought his characteristic great sense of style to everything he wrote Whether it was a letter to his daughter or a formal letter to the editor disemboweling a hostile review he wrote with care zest and in a distinctive voice Penned during the height of his fame between the years 1976 and 1995 these letters were sent to a wide range of recipients from Sir John Gielgud to Margaret Atwood from publishers to fans and critics of his writings The letters are frequently testy tart and not always politically correct but whether they are funny moving or thought provoking they provide a rare glimpse of the private Davies as revealed in his own words The Antioch Review John Donald Kingsley, 1992 The Canadian Forum, 1995 Includes critical reviews The Literary Review, 1991 Character Parts Brian John Busby, 2003 Ever wondered where novelists get the inspiration for their characters Why the hero or villain of your favourite book seems oddly familiar Who inspired Mordecai Richler to create Bernard Gursky Margaret Atwood to create Zenia in The Robber Bride In which novel does Northrop Frye appear as a character named Morton Hyland The answers can be found in Character Parts Brian Busby's irreverent yet authoritative guide to who's really who in Canadian literature The most original and entertaining reference book to be published in years Character Parts is the behind the scenes look at CanLit we have all been waiting for Brian Busby settles the suspicions that arise when a fictional character reminds you of a real life one listing the sources for characters from the whole of Canadian literature His canvas stretches from the settlers who inspired 1852's Roughing It in the Bush to Glenn Gould's appearance as Nathaniel Orlando Gow in Tim Wynne Jones The Maestro and beyond But Character Parts is also chock full of fascinating less famous people who have been immortalized in Canadian books seductive Alberta politicians British army generals anarchists models aristocrats and of course parents siblings and ex spouses Authoritative but presented with a light touch Character Parts is as at home in a university library as on a bathroom shelf It's that rare find an exemplary reference book that is also an absolutely entertaining read in its own right Essay and General Literature Index Minnie Earl Sears, Marian Shaw, Dorothy Herbert West, 2003 Includes List of books indexed published also separately Selected Works on the Pleasures of Readings Robertson Davies, 2008 Robertson Davies gave many speeches over the years and one of his favourite topics at these events was reading The greater part of this collection is speeches made throughout his life also included are essays ghost stories and a children's short story Who's who in Canada, 1995 Délibérations de la Société Royale Du Canada Royal Society of Canada, 1996 Proceedings of the Royal Society of Canada Royal Society of Canada, 1996
