New Grove Stravinsky:

The New Grove Stravinsky Stanley Sadie, John Tyrrell, 2003-03-15 Of Russian French and later American nationality Stravinsky's musical styles are startlingly diverse reflecting his life and era from Tsarist Russia to 1920s France and post war USA His early years in Russia saw him launch his international career with Diaghilev's Ballets Russes in Paris and the premieres of The Firebird, Petrushka and The Rite of Spring Between 1920-1939 Stravinsky lived and worked in France producing his great neo-classical compositions reactivating the modes and manners of the eighteenth century This stylistic inclination eventually gave way to a highly individual use of serial techniques in his last years when he took up residence in the United States This biography of Igor Stravinsky is one in a new series of composer biographies derived and adapted from the second edition of The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians These newly written biographies bring the best of the book-length pieces in The New Grove to a wider audience Each title provides fresh new insights into the life and works of a major composer derived from the most recent scholarship In addition to a detailed and informative view of the subject's life and works written by an expert in the field each book includes comprehensive tabular work lists and a fully revised and updated bibliography

New Grove Modern Masters Vera Lambert, László Somfai, Eric Walter White, Jeremy Noble, Ian Kemp, 1997-07 The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians is the most comprehensive and up-to-date body of musical knowledge ever gathered together The New Grove composer biographies have been selected from the dictionary to bring the finest of the biographies to a wider audience Each has been expanded and updated for book publication and contains a comprehensive work list index and fully revised bibliography in addition to the definitive view of the subject's life and works

The New Grove Modern Masters Vera Lambert, 1984 Discusses the lives and musical careers of the composers Bela Bartok, Igor Stravinsky and Paul Hindemith and examines their influence on twentieth century music

The New Grove Modern Masters, 1984 The New Grove Wagner Barry Millington, 2002 Wagner is one of the most controversial of composers and much that has been written about him including his autobiography is misleading Barry Millington draws on the best previous scholarship and his own original research to set the record straight The first part of this book is devoted to biography the second to a detailed study of the operas Millington offers a historical review of the critical interpretation of each opera including a discussion of recent methods of formal analysis In this revised edition two chapters those on Tannhäuser and Die Meistersinger include significant new material The bibliography has also been updated

to formulate from that intensely Russian experience an internationalist brand of neoclassicism founded upon the premises of objectivity and craft Drawing directly on the composer s manuscripts Griffiths addresses Stravinsky s lifelong fascination with counterpoint and with pianism s constructive processes Stravinsky s Piano presents both of these as recurring features of the compositional attitudes that Stravinsky consistently applied to his works whether Russian neoclassical or serial and regardless of idiom and genre
