The Fugitive Identity of Mediation Debbie De Girolamo, 2013-07-18 Despite much having been written about what mediation is direct observations of commercial mediations are limited This book grants an opportunity to observe mediation in action and also provides external commentary about the actions observed The book approaches Mediation ethnographically as a social process that is informed by structures rules and norms that colour the environment within which it operates Through the ethnographic method a process leading to negotiated order is examined baring its elements identifying its influences and studying the movement to order The result is the reconceptualization of mediation The mediator is invited into the negotiation as third party intervener He creates the process of mediation defining the process by his actions which ultimately merges mediator with process This book provides a window to the lived experience of participants to mediation it explores their understandings of and interactions within a process they have experienced together and demonstrates how mediation is a process inextricably linked to negotiation The Fugitive Identity of Mediation will be of interest to scholars mediators parties who participate in the process and to those active in public policy discourse

Law at War Ola Engdahl,Pål Wrange,2008 The authors of this volume have been inspired by the scholar to which this Liber Amicorum is dedicated Professor Ove Bring to look into both the past and the future of international law Like Ove Bring they have dealt with many aspects of the law governing the use of force from arms control to human rights international criminal law the UN Charter and of course international humanitarian law Like Professor Bring they have allowed themselves to draw trajectories from history and into the future and have shunned away from neither the controversial nor the speculative be it on the Middle East the invasion of Iraq or the independence of Kosovo This collection brings together insights from a former UN Legal Counsel a former Executive Chairman of UNMOVIC present and former judges of the European Court of Justice the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea one present and one former member of the International Law Commission as well as law professors and practitioners from all Nordic countries Germany and Australia Together they form a highly challenging mosaic of perspectives on topical issues like cluster munitions targeting human rights in peace operations and the purposes of sentencing in international tribunals The volume also contains a bibliography and a presentation of Professor Bring s work
