Idol,1999      New & Selected Essays Howard Nemerov,1985 OSRIC My hair is falling out and no one reads my poems OSWALD My liver is bad and everyone reads my ads In this opening dialogue between Osric a poet and Oswald a copywriter Nemerov exhibits qualities that remain constant through these 26 new and selected essays the ability to find the perfect wry phrase to show that the world is not quite as it should be and the courage to attack with wit and humor subjects that in others elicit a savage solemnity None of this is to say however that Nemerov is frivolous As are all the great writers and critics he is a deeply serious if nimble wit who confronts the basic is sues of art in life death morality Thus in The Swaying Form A Problem in Poetry he can say So the work of art is religious in nature not because it beautifies an ugly world or pretends that a naughty world is a nice one for these things especially art does not do but because it shows of its own nature that things drawn within the sacred circle of its forms are transfigured illuminated by an inward radiance which amounts to goodness because it amounts to being itself      The Collected Essays & Addresses

Mary Oliver,2016-10-11 One of O The Oprah Magazine s Ten Best Books of the Year The New York Times bestselling collection of essays from beloved poet Mary Oliver There s hardly a page in my copy of Upstream that isn t folded down or underlined and scribbled on so charged is Oliver s language Maureen Corrigan NPR s Fresh Air Uniting essays from Oliver s previous books and elsewhere this gem of a collection offers a compelling synthesis of the poet s thoughts on the natural spiritual and artistic worlds The New York Times In the beginning I was so young and such a stranger to myself I hardly existed I had to go out into the world and see it and hear it and react to it before I knew at all who I was what I was what I wanted to be So begins Upstream a collection of essays in which revered poet Mary Oliver reflects on her willingness as a young child and as an adult to lose herself within the beauty and mysteries of both the natural world and the world of literature Emphasizing the significance of her childhood friend Walt Whitman through whose work she first understood that a poem is a temple a place to enter and in which to feel and who encouraged her to vanish into the world of her writing Oliver

meditates on the forces that allowed her to create a life for herself out of work and love As she writes I could not be a poet without the natural world Someone else could But not me For me the door to the woods is the door to the temple Upstream follows Oliver as she contemplates the pleasure of artistic labor her boundless curiosity for the flora and fauna that surround her and the responsibility she has inherited from Shelley Wordsworth Emerson Poe and Frost the great thinkers and writers of the past to live thoughtfully intelligently and to observe with passion Throughout this collection Oliver positions not just herself upstream but us as well as she encourages us all to keep moving to lose ourselves in the awe of the unknown and to give power and time to the creative and whimsical urges that live within us
