Medium And The Message:

The Medium is the Message Marshall McLuhan, Quentin Fiore, 2001 First published in 1967 this text is now more relevant than ever as McLuhan's foresights about the impact of new media is actualized at unprecedented speeds via the Internet. It portrays technologies as an extension of man illustrating how our senses are massaged and our perceptions altered as these devices become integral parts of our lives. Marshall McLuhan: The medium is the message Marshall McLuhan, 2005 Instead of giving the reader just another collection of articles and interviews McLuhan Unbound gives readers offprints of the original essays.

The Medium's Message Catherine Harkness, 2014-10-23 Carrie lives alone with her cat her painting and her chickens but no man. She has good friends and life is just as she wants it. Then when she takes a friend to see a psychic she gets a message herself a dire prediction which soon starts coming true. Or is it coincidence? Imagination. Carrie's life is whirling out of control when and how is it going to end. Choice and Preference in Media Use Silvia Knobloch-Westerwick, 2014-07-25 Mediated messages flood our daily lives through virtually endless choices of media channels genres and content. However selectivity determines what media messages we attend to and focus on. The present book examines the factors that influence this selectivity. Seminal books on selective media exposure were published in 1960 by Klapper and in 1985 by Zillmann and Bryant. But an integrated update on this research field is much needed as rigorous selective exposure research has flourished in the new millennium. In the contexts of political communication health communication Internet use entertainment consumption and electronic games the crucial question of how individuals choose what content they consume has garnered much attention. The present book integrates theories and empirical evidence from these domains and discusses the related research methodologies. In light of the ever increasing abundance of media channels and messages selective exposure has become more important than ever for media impacts. This monograph provides a comprehensive review of the research on selective exposure to media messages which is at the heart of communication science and media effects. It is required reading for media scholars and researchers and promises to influence and inspire future research.

Religion and the Formation of Taiwanese Identities P. Katz, M. Rubenstein, 2003-06-27 This volume centres on the creation of varied forms of individual and group identity in Taiwan and the relationship between these forms of identity both individual and collective and patterns of Taiwanese religion politics and culture. The contributors explore the Taiwanese people's sense of who they are attempting to discern how they identify themselves as individuals and as collectives and then try to determine the identity roles individuals and groups construct for themselves. Ranging from the local essays to the national level and within the larger Chinese cultural religious universe these essays explore the complex nature of identity role and the processes of identity formation which have shaped Taiwan's multileveled past and its many faceted present. Behind the Scenes with the Mediums David Phelps Abbott, 1916 Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research American Society for Psychical Research, 1908 List of members in v 1 6 12 Journal of the American
