Mein Lebensgang:

Max Weber, Rudolf Steiner, and Modern Western Esotericism Aaron French, 2025-03-10 This book challenges previous definitions of modernity by comparing Max Weber 1864 1920 often considered the most important sociologist of the 20th century and Rudolf Steiner 1861 1925 founder of Waldorfp dagogik and the esoteric social reform movement of anthroposophy While acknowledging that Weber and Steiner were different in several respects this research illustrates that the individual histories of these two thinkers are more entangled than previously recognized This includes the influence of esotericism on their thinking as well as their profound concern with science and technological change and an openness to the religious and philosophical concepts of the civilizations of South and East Asia Demonstrating the importance of non European influences for a full understanding of modernity this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Asian and European philosophy social theory and Asian society Mein Lebensgang - Primary Source Edition Louise Otto-Peters, 2013-09 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book

From the History of the Dornach Hill... Angela Locher, 2024-11-25 Focusing on Marie Steiner von Sivers distinctive collaboration with Rudolf Steiner From the History of the Dornach Hill offers an engaging lively narrative of the early decades of the anthroposophical movement Utilizing eye witness accounts and primary sources Angela Locher creates vivid images of the developing arts at the Goetheanum in particular eurythmy speech formation and the dramatic arts but also describes many fascinating aspects of general anthroposophical history The latter include the period of cooperation with the Theosophical Society the design and building of the first and second Goetheanums travels tours and visits overseas with Rudolf Steiner the pivotal Christmas Conference of 1923 4 stage performances including the Mystery Dramas and Rudolf Steiner s unexpected death and its aftermath Locher structures her absorbing study around the life of Marie Steiner from her birth in 1867 and childhood in Russia to her eventual passing in Switzerland in 1948 I have written this book especially for subsequent generations of eurythmists actors and speakers who could not experience what had been achieved in the previous century the vital processes of the development of eurythmy and the dramatic arts These created the foundation on which we stand today and from which we can carry on into the future Angela Locher This work by Angela Locher can be greeted with enthusiasm In view of the difficult challenges of our time more people than ever are beginning to experience that the arts are not merely a beautiful addition to life but are profoundly connected to our humanity Virginia Sease

Malicious Objects, Anger Management, and the Question of Modern Literature Jörg Kreienbrock, 2013 Why do humans

get angry with objects Why is it that a malfunctioning computer a broken tool or a fallen glass causes an outbreak of fury How is it possible to speak of an inanimate object s recalcitrance obstinacy or even malice When things assume a will of their own and seem to act out against human desires and wishes rather than disappear into automatic unconscious functionality the breakdown is experienced not as something neutral but affectively as rage or as outbursts of laughter Such emotions are always psychosocial public rhetorically performed and therefore irreducible to a private feeling By investigating the minutest details of life among dysfunctional household items through the discourses of philosophy and science as well as in literary works by Laurence Sterne Jean Paul Friedrich Theodor Vischer and Heimito von Doderer Kreienbrock reconsiders the modern bourgeois poetics that render things the way we know and suffer them
