Milton Abbey A Dorset Monastery In The Middle Ages:

Milton Abbey J. P. Traskey, 1978 The Dissolution of the Monasteries James G. Clark, 2022 The first account of the dissolution of the monasteries for fifty years exploring its profound impact on the people of Tudor England This is a book about people though not ideas and as a detailed account of an extraordinary human drama with a cast of thousands it is an exceptional piece of historical writing Lucy Wooding Times Literary Supplement Shortly before Easter 1540 saw the end of almost a millennium of monastic life in England Until then religious houses had acted as a focus for education literary and artistic expression and even the creation of regional and national identity Their closure carried out in just four years between 1536 and 1540 caused a dislocation of people and a disruption of life not seen in England since the Norman Conquest Drawing on the records of national and regional archives as well as archaeological remains James Clark explores the little known lives of the last men and women who lived in England s monasteries before the Reformation Clark challenges received wisdom showing that buildings were not immediately demolished and Henry VIII s subjects were so attached to the religious houses that they kept fixtures and fittings as souvenirs This rich vivid history brings back into focus the prominent place of abbeys priories and friaries in the lives of the English people The Benedictines in the Middle Ages James G. Clark, 2011 The men and women that followed the 6th century customs of Benedict of Nursia c 480 c 547 formed the most enduring influential numerous and widespread religious order of the Latin Middle Ages This text follows the Benedictine Order over 11 centuries from their early diaspora to the challenge of continental reformation Medieval Monastic Education George Ferzoco, Carolyn Muessig, 2001-04-19 While the role of monastic education has been studied in great detail in regard to male practices this book examines the differences between the monastic formation and education of men and of women in Western Europe from the eighth to the sixteenth century Fourteen chapters written by well known scholars consider monastic education and practices in the geographical areas of England France Germany and the Low Countries Using attitudes toward education and actual educational theories the authors explore issues such as the use of music and physical training in education to explore new realms of the discipline An Indiscretion in the Life of an Heiress and Other Stories Thomas Hardy, 1998 This edition brings together ten stories never before collected that show the range and experimentation in Hardy s technique and subject matter as never before In addition to the title story derived from Hardy s unpublished first novel this volume includes How I Built Myself a House Destiny and a Blue Cloak Our Exploits at West Poley Old Mrs Chundle The Doctor s Legend The Spectre of the Real Blue Jimmy The Horse Stealer and The Unconquerable With an insightful introduction this edition takes the reader beyond the usual Hardy canon Thomas Hardy Thomas Hardy, 1992 Included in this edition are ten stories varying in length from sketch to novella which were never collected into volumes during Hardy s lifetime Some contained references to actual people or plot elements that he reused elsewhere others such as his only stories for children were simply too different from his other work in the short story form the longest An Indiscretion in the Life of an Heiress was apparently left uncollected to allow for a possible reconstruction of the lost novel The Poor Man and the Lady from which it was drawn. The three final stories resulted from literary collaborations which were also emotional involvements with Florence Henniker in The Spectre of the Real and with Florence Dugdale later the second Mrs Hardy in Blue Jimmy The Horse Stealer and The Unconquerable now published for the first time. Although all of these stories occupy significant positions within Hardy's career as a writer of fiction extending that career indeed both earlier and later than the standard account would allow, none of them has previously received serious editorial treatment. For the most part they have also been ignored or lightly passed over by critics and biographers and such discussion as they have aroused has frequently been based on false assumptions. This edition remedies some of these deficiencies in Hardy scholarship both in its historical introductions and in its critically edited texts which are based on full collations of all editions published before Hardy's death and all surviving manuscripts, typescripts and proofs many of which have gone almost entirely unexamined in the past. Complete lists of the variants in these pre-publication witnesses and in all authorially authorized printings supplement the edited texts.

English Monasteries in the Middle Ages George Henry Cook, 1961 The Suppression of the Monasteries in the West Country J. H. Bettey, 1989. Describes the confiscation of lands, properties, buildings and treasures of the English monasteries at the hands of Henry VIII and Thomas Cromwell. Includes for example Cromwell's remembrance that the abbot of Glaston to be tried at Glaston and also executed there with his complices. Minster Churches in the Dorset

Landscape Teresa Anne Hall, 2000. A detailed examination of high status churches and their environment in the Dorset or Wessex landscape in order to trace continuity from Roman and early Christian sites. Proceedings - Dorset Natural History and Archaeological Society Dorset Natural History and Archaeological Society, 1905. List of members in each volume.

Records of Early English Drama Rosalind Conklin Hays, C. Edward McGee, Sally L. Joyce, Evelyn S. Newlyn, 1999.

Medieval Fish, Fisheries and Fishponds in England Michael Aston, 1988. This volume is part of a two volume set. ISBN 9781407389837 Volume I ISBN 9781407389844 Volume II ISBN 9780860545095 Volume set. The Cloister and the World John Blair, Brian Golding, 1996. This outstanding collection of essays honours a distinguished scholar best known for her work on late medieval economy, demography and estate management and on the monastic community at Westminster. The unifying theme is the imprint of the church, especially the monastic church, upon society at large. Contributions range from the eighth to sixteenth centuries with an emphasis on the later middle ages looking at urban religion, monastic education and the role of religious communities in stimulating economic growth. Westminster Abbey figures prominently alongside essays on the effects of the Dissolution on nunneries, the role of sanctuary in local communities and on individuals such as Matthew Paris and Robert of Knaresborough whose lives reveal much about medieval England. In a worthy tribute to a great medievalist, the contributors show us a world where the influence of the cloister reached into almost every aspect of daily life.

Redeemed from the Heath Peter W. Cox, Carrie M. Hearne, 1991. Gesta Pontificum Anglorum: Commentary William (of Malmesbury), 2007 second volume contains an introduction and detailed commentary to accompany the Latin text and translation of the work appearing in Volume I The introduction presents and analyses the reasons behind the work The commentary linked to the Latin text discusses problems and questions thrown up by the work and illustrations appear throughout Jacket Bulletin of Dr. Williams's Library Dr. Williams's Library, 1980 Dorset, 1983 Domesday Book: Dorset John Morris, 1983 Notes & Queries for Somerset and Dorset Frederic William Weaver, Hugh Norris, Charles Herbert Mayo, 1996 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983
