Mind Master:

Gaining Control of Your Subconscious Mind: Master Your Own Life Alissa Law,2020-05-14 The subconscious mind has been seeing and recording things from the beginning from the time of birth and hasn't forgotten. It's like a magnetic tape that has recorded to you your life, reminding you of the things you thought you were replaying. You are replayed, your mind is your thought. Although you may not be aware of it, you are always recording. As to what they're by the things you're recording, they're physical manifestations of your thoughts. Your thoughts have energy, and energy has direction. You think things like "I'm angry" and "I'm hurt" by your thoughts. The subconscious has a dual purpose. It's the gateway between the conscious and the unconscious. The subconscious is the link between the physical world and the other world, the spiritual. It's that which is not matter, matter is the gateway through which we exist and exist in the world of our souls. Our souls are our thoughts. The gateway is both ways. On the one hand, it's the way that the subconscious records and tells the story of who you are and communicates that vibration to the soul in the field of intention. It doesn't embellish. It's not a lie. It's not a truth. It's what you are. You are your being. And that vibration reverberates and is recorded by the universal mind, the energy field of the universe. The same universal vibration is given to you, like being turned back to you, just as you are. It comes back to you exactly as you are. As a recorder, it captures the vibration of the universe. The subconscious captures the vibration of feeling and emotion. It captures the vibration of your heart, your heart to your experience and the vibration of the thought of the choice. And then it records the vibration into the universal energy field. This energy field is the universal impersonal vibrations between things with the low vibrations within the field and the high vibrations back to you. It's the universal alignment of your vibrations to those of the universal field. Now, in the world of matter, in every action there is a vibration. The law of vibration says we vibrate into the world. In vibration, you're free to decide. It's the freedom to do what you are, what you are doing, you're going to be in each moment, the being you choose to vibrate. It's this vibration that is impressed on the subconscious. It's a vibration that is just recorded. It's the vibration behind the words, behind the thought, the feeling, the vibration. This is what the subconscious is not vibrating. It's the universal magnetic tape. And the universal mind is the being. It is a faultless witness to your intention. The universal mind is the vibration. The function of the subconscious is to receive all the power and wisdom of the soul to come through and exist with the universal and to its growth. When the subconscious is free of vibration, when the window is clean and free of resistance to the universal will, then the universal intelligence and guidance by the universal mind will come to know the vibration. We have a vibration of all the things that we now speak to you without the vibration of your vibration. We are standing between the universal and the universal. A will is the vibration of the universal mind. The difference between happiness and pain and failure is vibration.
