Mine Own Executioner:

Mine Own Executioner, by Nigel Balchin Nigel Balchin, Mine Own Executioner Nigel Balchin, 1945 The British Trauma Film Adam Plummer, 2023-04-20 While the historical influence of psychoanalysis on Hollywood cinema has received considerable attention the same cannot be said for its influence on British cinema This book examines the central position that psychoanalysis occupies in British cinema in the years immediately following the Second World War Plummer uses a critical theory framework to understand the role that psychoanalysis plays in British culture at this time as an historical discourse and in British cinema as a narrative a cultural and an ideological discourse He defines these as arising within various areas of contemporary psychoanalytic thinking related to traumatic wartime experience sexual difference and the interplay between subjectivity and objectivity He analyzes six British films of the period The Halfway House Dead of Night The Seventh Veil Madonna of the Seven Moons They Made Me a Fugitive and Mine Own Executioner and demonstrates how psychoanalysis operates within them as a narrative and formal structuring mechanism He argues that this engagement enables these films to begin to address the emotional fallout of the war by creating safe representational spaces where contemporary audiences could engage with their own traumatic experiences While The British Trauma Film defines psychoanalysis as providing a language for British cinema at this time to confront the effects of wartime trauma it finds that it also operates within a normalizing ideological system designed to reproduce dominant pre war relations of political social and sexual power However in this group of films this system is often countered by subversive discursive forces that seem to be immanent to the films themselves

Textbook of Applied Psychoanalysis Salman Akhtar, Stuart Twemlow, 2020-09-10 The Textbook of Applied Psychoanalysis is a unique and original contribution to the field of psychoanalysis Emphasizing and underscoring the need for interdisciplinary discourse in understanding the dialectical relationship between mind and culture this volume addresses a multiplicity of realms These include anthropology religion philosophy history as well as evolutionary psychology medicine race poverty migration and prejudice Dimensions of social praxis such as education health policy and cyberpsychology are also addressed The enrichment of our understanding of the fine arts e g painting sculpture poetry and performing arts e g music dance cinema by the application of psychoanalytic principles and the enhancement of psychoanalysis by bringing such arts to bear upon it also form areas of this book's concern This magisterial volume brings distinguished psychoanalysts philosophers musicians poets businessmen architects and movie critics together to create a chorus of modern anthropologically informed and culturally sensitive psychoanalysis
