Millennial Markers:

Millennial Markers Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 1997 United in Discontent Julia Suzanne Torrie, 2010
Preparing for air war Order or chaos Organizing evacuations Our stay gives us no pleasure If only family unity can be maintained On the basis of selection Responding to chaos Evacuation s aftermath Millennials and Media Ecology Anthony Cristiano, Ahmet Atay, 2019-07-03 Millennials and Media Ecology explores issues pertaining to millennials and digital media ecology and studies the cultural pedagogical and political environments such heterogeneous generation populates The book questions whether millennials are properly understood as a heterogeneous group particularly by the institutions and agencies that target them and whether they are demonstrating the ability to set out a path for themselves and take charge of their own life and future A diverse team of expert authors review past and current studies with critical assessment of arguments and propositions and document actual experiences of members of the millennial generation through detailed studies Engaging with topical subject matter and current research on millennials the chapters Question the misunderstanding that digital tools and Internet technologies are making the younger generation dumber and disengaging them from the real world Underscore the legal and economic insights into the commodification of the younger generation as consumers rather than learners Examine the historical trajectory of media technology and whether new practices are having an empowering effect or one of enslavement to an increasingly irreversible technological and socio political regime Shed light on issues of critical pedagogy emerging from digital environments in relation to one s mental abilities and degrees of wisdom Discuss the cultural and political implications of millennials new media trends the changing relationship between millennials and legacy media which rely on the younger generation for survival Offer new insights into the significance of current media trends in relation to issue of credibility and identity This is an essential book for scholars in the fields of Media and Communications and Popular Culture and will be vital reading for postgraduate students and specialists in related fields

Religion, Race, and COVID-19 Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, 2022-02-15 This book analyzes how the particular dynamics and effects emerging from the COVID 19 crisis both impact and are perceived by its most vulnerable yet visionary populations based on their pragmatic and prescient analysis of the American experiment of freedom with regards to race and religion Without a doubt this book addresses the various ways the COVID 19 crisis marks not merely a moment in time but also a world historical event that threatens to leave its imprint on lives and cultures for decades to come Violence Pamela Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2002-01-01 This book provides a wide ranging introduction to the meaning and context of violence The authors build upon David Riches s concept of the triangle of violence which examines the relationship between performers victims and witnesses and his proposition that violence is marked by contests regarding its legitimacy as a social act Adopting an approach which looks at the negotiated and contingent nature of violent behavior Stewart and Strathern particularly stress the powerful underlying motivation for revenge and the often unacknowledged association between ideas of revenge and concepts of justice These theoretical perspectives are applied to in depth case studies from Rwanda Urundi Sri Lanka and Northern Ireland The authors also draw on extensive field experience in Papua New Guinea and ethnographic detail is used to address broader issues of considerable global importance The Latter-Day Saints' Millennial Star ,1901
