

An aerial, sepia-toned photograph of a coastal town in the 19th century. The town is densely packed with buildings, mostly two or three stories high, with gabled roofs. A prominent church with a tall steeple is visible in the center. The town is situated on a hillside that descends towards a harbor or bay. Several ships are visible in the water, and a few masts are visible in the distance. The overall scene depicts a bustling port town of the mid-19th century.
